PRESIDENT'S REPORT:

President Cocke thanked all of the members. This has been a great year for WBCCI. One of the goals was to promote thinking and acting like a member service organization. We have increased membership to over 7,300 members and the rate of new member sign-ups is over 35 members per week. This is a tribute to everyone of you and to our Membership Standing Committee Chair, Teresa Taylor, and her committee, to Mary Johnson, her capable webmaster, and Barb Langston, our member services staff member.

Special thanks was given by President Cocke to the rally organizers and sponsors who created national and special event rallies across the country and to Bill Price, our National and Special Event Committee Chair. There have been 8 new rallies added this year bringing the total of national and special event rallies to 16 this year. The added rallies are:

- Bend Classic Rally
- Texas Country Air
- Canopener
- New York City Base Camp
- Pets and Paws
- Airstreams on Mainstreet
- Columbus Day

- Athens Old Time Fiddlers Convention

President Cocke announced that part of the goals he had for the club this year were to increase the value of the club both to membership and to those thinking about joining. He thanked all those who participated in supporting our club's many caravans and the caravan leaders and Jay Thompson, the Caravan Standing Committee Chair. Jim stated that our club was founded in 1955 so we could go on caravans even when Wally Byam was off the continent leading his caravans. The Caravan Committee has done great work reviving and initiating 7 new caravans this year.

President Cocke thanked members who contributed articles, provided feedback and gave input on the club's magazine, The Blue Beret. You have worked very hard this year to promote the image, through our media, of one engaging club. You've improved the look and feel of the magazine and our club this year. Thank you, Hedda Smithson, Chair of the Publications Standing Committee, to your committee members, to staff member, Deb Sailor, and our corporate manager, Lori Plummer, for your dedicated and visionary work bringing our Blue Beret Magazine so much further forward.

Many thanks were also given to all who supported this rally with your attendance and work on committees. It makes it look easy when you have 500 volunteers helping. Thanks especially to Karen Fisher, our Rally Manager and the International Rally Committee for your dedicated work over the past year, planning and making the 61st International Rally happen. We have a very capable and talented corporate manager working full-time in Jackson Center with our three full time staff members. President Cocke said, "I have been very proud to work closely this past year with all three of them. She's a masterful project manager and she's done a terrific job pulling this off. I take full blame for any errors or omissions on this rally and Karen and the International Rally Committee deserve full credit for this wonderful event."

President Cocke stated that he was extremely proud to have overseen our club's growth and improvements over this past year. He thanked every single member and leader who had any part promoting the club and asked them to please not stop doing what you're doing, it looks great.

1st VP'S REPORT:

“We did things in reverse this year - we went to Doswell before this rally. We had Larry Owens out there figuring out how to do this rally better. And next year's rally will be even better because he was with us in Doswell already. Things are progressing in Doswell very well. Since we've been there, we know the grounds and have a little longer to plan for it.

“We want you all to think about coming. It's about a half hour north of Richmond, VA. It's a great part of the country.”
