Sonoma County Update from the RV Park: “All restaurants in Sonoma County are open for Take Out and Dining Outside (when space is available.)” (No inside dining)

“Facial coverings must be worn when folks are not in their assigned sites, this is a requirement not a choice. Example: While walking around the RV Park (it is a Public Area,) walking on the trails (trails are open to the public) and while RV Clubs are gathered (maintaining 6’ social distancing will be difficult.) Unless club members are eating or drinking then facial coverings don’t have to be worn.” (What a good excuse to keep drinking!!!!)

“All Trails, Sites & Beaches in Sonoma County are open to the Public so Facial Covering are required, it is not a choice.”
