July 2016

President's Message

~ Bard Fuller

On behalf of all of us here at the Lewisburg, WV International Rally, I want to thank Rich Kushman back in CT for producing this special addition of the Chatter. The early birds here at Lewisburg, WV, have survived 3 days of constant rain and significant flooding. They are now drying out with the new found sun. Many are out and about the beautiful countryside sightseeing and enjoying the programs here at the fairgrounds.

There is just so much happening with our club this summer. Our members here in WV celebrated the opening of the International Rally with a southern style BBQ from the Pig's Don't Fly Restaurant. You will find some photos in this Chatter of the first couple of days of the International Rally here in the heart of the Appalachian

Mountains. (More to come in the August issue.)

In this special addition you will want to read Bill Watt's article on our campout at the marina in Portland, CT. With all the planning, shopping and arrangements that went into making this eventful weekend I never would have thought that we would have been upstaged by a turtle laying eggs behind the Watt's trailer! Never underestimate Mother Nature!

Sadly, we've had to cancel our Providence, RI, Water Fire Rally at the end of August. The Water Fire celebration organizers had changed the dates from the previous year and I was not able to change our reservations at our contracted campground nor find a reasonable alternative campground. Hopefully we will revisit this event in the future as I know many of us, along with our sister unit (New England Unit), were looking forward to the

Lobster and Turtle

It was with some trepidation that we left for the camping weekend on the Connecticut River. The forecast was for rain and showers. As it turned out, we had mostly great weather – Saturday was perfect....Sunday morning a bit of rain - but it did not matter. Good times were had by all.

We started off Saturday with a very unusual breakfast – Fix-your-own-omelet in a plastic zip lock bag. Chef Russ, assisted by Bard and Kathy, stood close by to guide us and make sure that everything was turned out perfectly.

Breakfast was followed by our annual Spring Business Meeting which Mayor Bard, garbed in a sparkling, Kelly-green top hat, green jacket and official-looking sash, led in his usual, efficient style. Evie reported that COCU has five new members. Brand-new members Christine and Glen were welcomed. The East Woodstock couple joined the previous week, and immediately decided to attend the rally. The meeting was followed by the traditional lunch at the Famous Airstream Top Dog, where we feasted on hot dogs garnished with a variety of toppings. YUMMY!

The afternoon was free time. Some of us visited local points of interest. We went to the winery a short drive from the Marina to sample their wines. Unfortunately, my Scotch nature got in the way. $10.95 for a wine tasting seemed a bit high so we drove to the local liquor store, purchased a bottle of chilled wine, and returned to the marina. We joined the other "Airstreamers" lined up on the river-bank and watched the world go by on the beautiful Connecticut River. It was a wonderful and peaceful afternoon.

Another delicious visit to the Top Dog.

We stuffed ourselves at Russ's awesome lobster/chicken dinner on Saturday evening and celebrated Ted and Lois Price's 60th Wedding Anniversary with champagne and cake provided by their daughters, Alison and Lisa. The evening was completed with an Airstream Open House which was enjoyed by all.

The Grand Finale was provided by a mama snapping turtle behind our trailer that decided it was time to lay a nest of eggs. She captured our attention while she did her thing and then walked off into the underbrush. Here is an interesting fact. Did you know that the snapping turtles have temperature-dependent sex determination? Eggs maintained at 68 °F produce only females; eggs incubated at 73-75 °F produce only males, and eggs incubated at 70-73 °F produce both males and females. ~

Dictated by Bill Watts

Typed by Evie Watts ... and of course read by all.

Now, Bill has three questions for you:

1. How many eggs does the female snapping turtle lay?
2. When do the eggs generally hatch?
3. How long do snapping turtles live?

The answers are scattered in the Chatter.

Tough to see - turtle laying eggs then walking away.

Welcome to new members GLEN & CHRISTINE LESSIG from East Woodstock, CT. So glad you were able to join us at the Marina Rally in Portland, CT, and get a taste of what Airstreaming is all about.

A great big thank you to the FULLERS...BARD & KATHY, RUSS & RHONA for a super weekend at the Portland Marina. Saturday morning breakfast of "egg in the bag" turned out great with hardly any clean up. Someone said it was the first time in 50 years that ROGER CROCKETT made his own breakfast. It was good to see the LANDRYS, BUD GOULD, and DICK BARTRAM who were there for the day. Also nice to see EVELYN WATTS and AILI GALASYN doing so well after their surgeries. What an enjoyable weekend.

Sorry to hear that HELEN SANDALL fell and broke her hip. She has had surgery and now on the mend....we wish her well. MICHAEL SASUTA recently had cataract surgery and can see clearly now. BUD GOULD also had successful cataract surgery on his other eye, so now he can see twice as good. Amazing! Please remember RICH & DOTTIE WALBRIDGE, as RICH will hopefully participate in another clinical trial.

Once again, we invite you to join us for the weekend rally July 31, 2016 at Franklin County Fairgrounds, in Greenfield, Massachusetts, even though you may not be going on the Region 1 Caravan to Quebec. Please reserve by July 15, 2016. (see Tri-State flyer or call 203-494-7467).

The Norman Rockwell Museum

Located in the heart of the Berkshire Mountains is the quaint town of Stockbridge, MA. The town was the home of Norman Rockwell for most of his prolific creative artistic years. Today, The Norman Rockwell Museum holds the largest collection of original Norman Rockwell art. Included in this collection are The Saturday Evening Post cover illustration as well as the famed "Four Freedoms" illustrations. Be part of a weekend in the Berkshires at our September rendezvous and immerse ourselves in the art of Norman Rockwell. The flier for this event is attached to the newsletter. ~

I will be sending in dues to headquarters starting July 1, 2016 to October 1, 2016. Please keep this in mind, to make my job easier. It's $80.00 for a regular member, $15.00 for a Life Member or Affiliate, payable to Charter Oak CT. As Treasurer, thank you to those who have already paid their dues....!

Quebec City – Region One Rally

Be part of the of the culinary world of Quebec City and have dinner at one of the famed restaurants on the "Old City" while attending the Region One Rally in nearby Montmagny, Quebec. Join the caravan and travel the Connecticut River Valley though Vermont and tour Sherbrooke, Quebec with your host Gilles & Joyce Rousseau while in Compton, Quebec. ~

Mama turtle lays a clutch of 20-40 creamy-white, ping-pong-ball sized eggs.

Mr. WBCCI

John Fuller was awarded the extremely rare WBCCI eleventh star here at the International Rally. That translates to being a WBCCI member for 55 years or more. That achievement becomes more exclusive as there are no known members that have gained this distinction and continue to tow their Airstream.

John and Marian Fuller joined the Northeast Unit prior to the existence of the New England, Cape Cod or Connecticut Units in their present forms. Having camped as a child in a Covered Wagon brand trailer, John was brought up in the trailering lifestyle in the 1930's prior to the advent of in coach refrigerators, AC, furnaces or even a toilet on board.

His first Airstream was a 1956 Flying Cloud towed by an elegant 1958 Buick Roadmaster wagon. His California built Airstream was purchased in New York City. Getting the trailer home for the first time was an adventure just coming out of the city!

John has been an integral part of the WBCCI. As a member of the original Northeast Unit he witnessed the transitioning to the New England Unit when the Quebec Unit split off. He served several years as the Connecticut Director for the New England Unit hosting the New England Unit's first rally in Connecticut. He participated in the initial formation meetings of the Charter Oak Connecticut Unit and became a charter associate member. John was also in the nucleus of those who founded an all southern New England unit which became known as the Cape Cod Unit.

John was in the leadership of the iconic Newport, Rhode Island Special Event Rallies during the 1970's. He has hosted a multitude of unit rallies throughout Southern New England and Vermont. Among those he annually hosted an October rally for more than 20 years at the YMCA Day Camp in Southington, CT.

He rose through the ranks of officers in the Cape Cod Unit and became president from 1980-81. John was tapped to be a Region 1 officer during the 1980's and during the golden years of WBCCI became President of our region.

At the age of 90, having outlived 3 trailers and 2 wives, he married Grace Firnhaber, a world traveler in her own rite. The two are presently enjoying traveling and the Wally Byam Way-of-Life. They are mainstays at the Sugar Creek Festival in Ohio and winter in Land Yacht Harbor in FL. He is also an active participant in Cape Cod and Charter Oak, CT unit functions.

We all salute John Fuller for his incredible longevity and insatiable “Wally Spirit”. ~ Bard

Water Fire Providence spectacle.

This month of July we have some great opportunities available. At the time of this writing I see there are still a few sites, available through Reserve America, for our no frills rendezvous on the beautiful shores of Lake Waramaug. After registering please notify John and Fina Bachar, our hosts, that you will be joining the group .

Michael and Sandy Sasuta welcome all to the Greenfield Fairgrounds in the Connecticut River valley for the Tri-State Rally from July 29-31. Plenty of sites will be available as we have the entire fairgrounds but early notification is appreciated so that our hosts can plan for the food.

Starting from this Greenfield, MA, rally will be the premier unit event, a joint caravan with the Cape Cod Unit folks. This caravan will travel up through Vermont and Sherbrooke, Quebec ultimately leading to Quebec City and the Region I Rally. I hear there is a fabulous culinary experience awaiting us. We will have a unique ability to partake in a bit of Europe in our Canadian backyard.

Bill and Evie Watts are introducing the Norman Rockwell Rendezvous for September in this issue. They hope to try something new...a potluck breakfast. The rest of the day is open to visiting the Norman Rockwell Museum in nearby Stockbridge, MA as well as other attractions in the Berkshire hills. They have a gorgeous campground, however please note that reservations will be needed by August 23. The flier is attached to this issue so fill it out today and send it in!

So from all of us here in West Virginia we ask for the good Lord's blessing to keep the good times rolling!! ~ Bard

When I go to farms or little towns, I am always surprised at the discontent I find. And New York, too often, has looked across the sea toward Europe. And all of us who turn our eyes away from what we have are missing life. ~ Norman Rockwell

Deal or No Deal

~ Lois Price

In Florida, Ted and Rich Kushman were out for their morning walk
 When a big red truck filled with folks stopped them and wanted to talk.
 They had been cruising Travelers Rest in search of an Airstream to buy.
 I wasn't there but I'm sure that Ted wanted to cry!
 Ted assured them that he just might know of one (parked in "our" yard, of course).
 For the right price he might be willing to sell (with just a little remorse).
 The family toured the rig and an offer was made
 That was so low we could not consider the trade!
 This is a fine RV with all kinds of space -
 "No way Jose" said Ted to his face!
 The man assured us that they had cash in hand
 Which he felt would make the deal a grand slam!
 Finally, they took off and disappeared down the road..
 An hour or so later, low and behold,
 The red truck was parked out in front.'
 We wondered what on earth these people did want?
 Out they all got with cash in hand
 With another request to buy, which became almost a demand!
 Negotiations were put back on the table.
 Ted again told them "no" as politely as he was able.
 So off they trotted, not happy at all.
 Even with their piles of money, once again they took a fall.
 Sometime later that same day (you'll never guess)
 This Mexican family returned, quite stressed.
 Into our house, yet another time. Ted was not exactly happy or Blessed.
 These people had become more than just pests.
 This time around the words did fly,
 "What would it take for us to be able to buy?"
 More Dinero's is what we must have or no deal!
 Even what we asking the price is a steal!
 A few more hundreds were put on the table.
 We were assured that was all they were able

Love Bells

Here in Connecticut long long ago
 A merger took place from which flowers would grow
 It started during May on the twenty sixth
 When young Ted and Lois got into the mix
 Ted gently led Lois to their wedding night bed
 The first time for her - well, that's what she said
 Neither could know it would last so damn long
 But love bells still ring, with her ding and his dong
 Those flowers I mentioned soon did appear
 Three beautiful blooms full of laughter and cheer
 First Leslie then Lisa then Allie showed up
 A kitty. a hamster, sweet Sherri the pup
 A gerbil in the ductwork and that's not a lie
 A rabbit named Bun Bun and a dachshund named Sli
 Now it's only a rumor that's what I hear
 Those blossoms were baptized from a tankard of beer
 Airstreaming started a new chapter you know
 They dragged that fine trailer and never went slow
 Ted's shrewd inventions always a treat
 His vast use of cardboard was pretty damn neat
 Lois with fun hats and rhymes in her bag
 As Ted squeezed out two bits bumming a fag
 Sixty years of paradise with still more to go
 They find themselves now with nothing to tow
 No tires to blowout no panels to dent
 No toilet to overflow no awning that's bent
 After touring our country with Lois and Ted
 We are happy and grateful not winding up dead
 Fun to be with - that can be said
 Thank you God for Lois and Ted.

~ Kush

Deal or No Deal

"We'll buy your trailer for "X" amount -
And use it for housing for three months, return it to you and give back 1/2 of what we paid to deposit in your account."

"Or, perhaps I could mow your lawn, paint your house, plant some flowers once the trailer is no longer ours!"

Ted promptly replied, "Not in a pig's eye!"
I thought the man was going to cry.

"Do you want to be responsible for my Sister and her children not having a home", said the man?

I wouldn't have been surprised if Ted had thrown them out on their cans!!

The afternoon was well on its way
And we figured our buyers had finally gone away to stay.

How wrong can we be? A familiar red truck was again out front.
With more cash in hand and more determination to confront.

It was about 4:00 in the afternoon
And Happy Hour would be coming soon.

It was time for "Deal or No Deal" to come to an end
And we decided to part with our dear Silver friend.

A friend that had taken us to Alaska, Mexico, across the U.S.A. and more.
Making memories and meeting wonderful people from shore to shore.

That night the cash was hidden and doors locked until we could get to the bank.
The money proved not to be counterfeit; I think we have God to thank!!

You may be disappointed but our story has come to end
We sure do miss our good old friend

~ Lois Price

We all get heavier as we get older because there's a lot more information in our heads. So I'm not fat, I'm just really intelligent and my head couldn't hold any more so it started filling up the rest of me. That's my story and I'm sticking to it.

Snapping turtles typically live 20-40 years, but can live up to 150 years
