President's Message ~ Evelyn Watts

We jumped right into May by attending the Region One Gathering in Fryeburg, Maine. It rained, and rained, and rained. Despite the wet weather, Tye Mott and R.J. Dominic managed to put together a good rally. Food and drink were plentiful and delicious; and the Region One Meeting was well run and informative. COCU's First VP Joyce Rousseau was the recording secretary and has a summary of items discussed elsewhere in this CHATTER.

Mystic was red, white and blue with theme flowers for all.

The "Whale of a Time Rally" was a WHALE OF A GREAT TIME. If our first rally is any indication of the coming season, good times are ahead for COCU.

Beautiful Weekend ~ Gail Downing

It was a beautiful weekend to begin the Charter Oak 2017 camping season. There were 20+ trailers as we welcomed five new members who I trust will find us a welcoming bunch of folks. We are all looking forward to seeing the new members and old hands at future gatherings.

Bard & Kathy set the theme - USA.

Once again Bard and Kathy Fuller did a fantastic job! They make it look so easy, and we all appreciate their efforts.

Question

What is it that given one, you'll have either two or none?

Answer page 3

Lady Liberty weighs 204 metric tons, but don't call her fat. The Lady's copper skin is extremely thin—barely 1/16th of an inch thick, to be exact.

Beautiful Week End - From Page 1

Friday night happy hour under the tent was a good time seeing friends we haven't seen since last season. On Saturday after a hearty breakfast folks dispersed in different directions. Some visited historic Mystic Seaport or the Mystic Aquarium. The Indian Museum at the casino was also a destination for some. Some folks attended family functions that were close by, graduations, showers, etc.

We all reunited for a hearty happy hour with really great food, and nobody left hungry! A fellow Airstreamer parked across the field paid us a visit. He is from California traveling alone so of course was invited him to join us.

The bonfire afterwards was nice, our circle was wide and warm and welcoming. ~

Summary of the Region One Business Meeting- May 6, 2017- Fryeburg, ME

~ Joyce Rousseau - 1st VP and acting Recording Secretary for the Region 1 meeting.

Region 1 President Tyrone Mott discussed several important issues that we want to distribute to our membership.

Since the WBCCI is incorporated in Ohio, and Ohio has rules that require that constitutions be reviewed every 5 years, all units must send their most recent document to headquarters. It will be evaluated and a response sent back to the unit by Lori Plummer.

Web pages are also being reviewed. A calendar of all WBCCI events is available on line. Any info/changes should be sent to region presidents to be forwarded to headquarters.

Official badges are required at all WBCCI regional and international meetings. Some units have designed their own which may be used at the local level.

The use of the word "Airstream" in any format/materials is under a "lawyers' discussion" to prevent trademark infringement. It may not be used unless notified by headquarters. (Resolution and a set of steps to follow has since been given to units.)

I raised a question about the distribution of information to members via the internet. Some members use Facebook but it is NOT official and another method of telling all members must be devised. Updated email lists must be provided to a member in charge of information. Tye reminded us that we are a volunteer group and much is done through mentoring. We must all try to educate new members/officers as much as possible.

Approval/appreciation of the new Blue Beret design was unanimous.

The midwinter meeting reminded us that all prayers used at any meeting must be nondenominational.

The rep from our Quebec unit raised a concern that their entry into any WBCCI "contest" or judging is disqualified since it is in French. English translations are required which did not seem fair to some present for the discussion. Further discussion to get a better resolution to this topic will continue.

Although some of us may find this report more than they need, it is our goal to have an informed membership and knowing what takes place at unit, region and international meetings is key to that goal. Please send any comments or questions to President Evelyn so that they may be addressed by our Executive Board. I hope you feel more knowledgeable and a more important part of COCU! ~

Presidents Message - From Page 1

Thank you Kathy and Bard. Be sure to read Gail's article about this wonderful weekend.

Gail and Wiley (Jim) Downing are busy putting the finishing touches on their Bald Mountain Rendezvous from July 7-9. It is a beautiful area in the middle of the lush, green mountains of Vermont. Our wagon masters have a supply of sight-seeing information that will be available for us to peruse. This is the last rally before the International Rally in Escanaba, so remember to bring your can tabs, personal size hygiene items, pet food, stuffed animals and kid's books.

Next is Escanaba, Michigan! My list shows eight members going this minute. PLEASE let me know if you plan to be there, so that you are included in our traditional COCU get-together at International. I am learning that the Michigan's Upper Peninsula has a language all of its own. Yooper food really sounds interesting - pasty, trenary toast, cudighi, lefse, kolaczki and thimbleberries - I plan to try them all. Holy Wah! Ya tinkin t'go ta Escanaba. You betcha. You in for BIG treat!

The next CHATTER will be the August issue...until then - Happy Travels.

~ President Evie

Here we see Gilles Rousseau and Bill Watts experiencing pasta in Fryeburg.

I found myself somewhat challenged to author an appropriate caption and none was supplied. What occurred to me is that this picture offers the opportunity for a wide variety of interpretations with some perhaps bordering on the insane.

So let's have a contest.

Please submit your caption for this picture to rich.kath@icloud.com for judging.

Entries will be shared in the next Chatter for all to enjoy. The winner will eventually receive an old box of fettuccine.

Ponder it, take your time, give it a try, and pray for Billy. ~

We had a great time at the May rally in Mystic, CT...thank you BARD & KATHY FULLER.

Welcome to new affiliates DOUGLAS & LYDIA HART (#1837) from Duxbury, MA, and also ROLAND & SANDIE ST. LAURENT (#5105) from Marshfield, MA. We look forward to seeing you at future events.

Please keep JOHN TAVARES in mind as he is in rehab, but should be coming home in June. Please feel better soon.

We send sincere sympathy to CAROLYN KNIGHT on the passing of her husband HOWARD. He was very active with WBCCI, being a past Region 1 President, New England Unit President, Caravan Leader and affiliate with Charter Oak CT for over 45 years. He will be missed by all those that knew him.

Thoughts and sympathy for Kathleen Kushman who's mom passed one day short of her 95th birthday. ~

Ed: Jerry Ingalinera suddenly left us Wednesday, May 31st. Jerry was my friend and we shared a mutual antipathy for each other's politics but a common respect and sense of humor for the battle. Jerry loved Airstreaming, he was generous, he was a good man, and I will miss the battle. ~

Secret Recipe

CHILI CHEESE DIP

~ Gail Downing

8 oz. cream cheese softened

1 can Hormel Chili no beans

2 cups shredded cheddar

Spread softened cream cheese in bottom of baking dish. Spread chili on top of cream cheese. Then sprinkle two cups shredded cheddar over the top.

Heat 4 minutes on high in microwave until cheese completely melted.

Your favorite chips and dip away !

“Experience Newport”

~ Bard Fuller

Back by popular demand - “Experience Newport”. A favorite from the 2016 season this will be a joint effort for 2017 of the New England and Connecticut Units. I will be co-hosting with Eddie Carl this year and want to bring you hopefully another memorable rally.

Melville Ponds Campground is upgrading their facility and will be providing sewer connections to all sites this season along with 30 amp electrical and water. They have a wonderful pavilion for our gatherings and best of all the campground is just 5 miles to the heart of Newport, Rhode Island's attractions, restaurants and the spectacular Narragansett Bay setting.

NOW HERE IS THE DEAL: I have reserved 25 sites for Sept 29 – Oct 1 weekend. This is the majority of the sites available that are not seasonal. The rally was introduced 2 weeks ago by email to all our members and the response has been fantastic as half of these sites have been booked. I have received kitty fees and campground site designation from the majority of those that have deposited with the campground and all have been from our New England Unit friends. Congratulations NEU!!!

Beware Charter Oak Connecticut Unit members don't let this rally get sold out without your participation. We have to June 30th to make reservations before the sites get released to the general public. However, these sites will likely not last that long with the present enthusiasm that the NEU has shown for this venue.

Flier for the rally is attached to this Chatter for the instructions on reserving a site. Join in on the fun, fellowship and Newport at its finest. ~

Something to Ponder...

Thinking about camping for next year?

Is there a special location you're considering?

Is there a celebration or fair you've been wanting to attend?

Is there a gorgeous site someone has told you about?

Oh, so many decisions...

Why not include your Airstream family in the experience?

Campgrounds are all over our area - it takes just a little effort to find them.

I could never plan a group event...

There are many experienced members around who can lend a hand.

All you have to do is ask for volunteers/help.

Start thinking about helping to plan COCU's 2018 camping experiences. The calendar is pretty open as of now- from April to October. Take us someplace new or revisit a familiar "old" place. If you think planning a camping event is too much, how about a Brunch for one of the other months? Getting together for a meal (Jan., Feb, Mar., Nov.) adds to our comraderie.

Look for the calendar for volunteering at our next gathering. It's not too early to start- the schedule is due by October to WBCCI headquarters. Hopefully your event will be on it.

Thanks in advance for your help in planning another great year!

Joyce Rousseau- 1st VP- joycezr68@gmail.com- 203-264-5372

From a “newbies” perspective ~ Jeanne Blandford

Jack and I were a little apprehensive about our planned Airstream trip to Fryeburg. Not quite RV virgins, but not seasoned as the rest of the troupe would be. We consider ourselves fly-by-the-seat of our pants RVers. We usually have an end-destination but rarely a planned agenda.

Our goal was to arrive in time to attend the cocktail party Thursday to introduce ourselves and get a feel for how the weekend would flow. We found the entrance to the fairgrounds and were immediately greeted by Per Hamnqvist, a tall, bearded man with an enthusiastic manner who guided us to our site.

As we pulled into our site, we noticed a familiar rig next to us. We had passed them as they stopped on the side of the road for lunch. We had honked fervently, waving as we drove by.

The owners, Evie (CT chapter president) and Bill (presidential assistant) came right over. They introduced themselves and we felt immediately welcomed into the fold.

After hooking up, we gathered our libations and scooted over to the gathering. Members came over one-by-one. Immediately stories and camping tips started to swap.

We went back to Elly May (our beloved Flying Cloud) and prepared dinner; feeling comfortable, invigorated and ready for the next day.

Muffins and bagels awaited us Friday morning as we got the lay of the land. Everyone talked of their day trips and we decided we would walk the quiet fairgrounds and then take a drive. We had passed a Good Sam's store on the way up and thought we could shop for a few essentials. We were surprised on how crowded the store was until we notice a dozen familiar faces! Everyone had had the same idea. We spent the rest of the day exploring parts of New Hampshire and then enjoyed a quiet night dining at our favorite spot- Elly May.

We had signed up with Tye to help with breakfast Saturday and showed up at 6:30 as instructed. We were impressed with the multitude of volunteers that appeared at such an early time and how everyone in the group pitched in from food prep to cleanup.

That afternoon we drove to the local airport to get permission to fly our drone, Jack took the opportunity between raindrops to get an aerial view of the fairgrounds boasting its 30 Airstream units neatly parked side-by-side. A glorious sight!

From a “newbies” perspective - from page 9

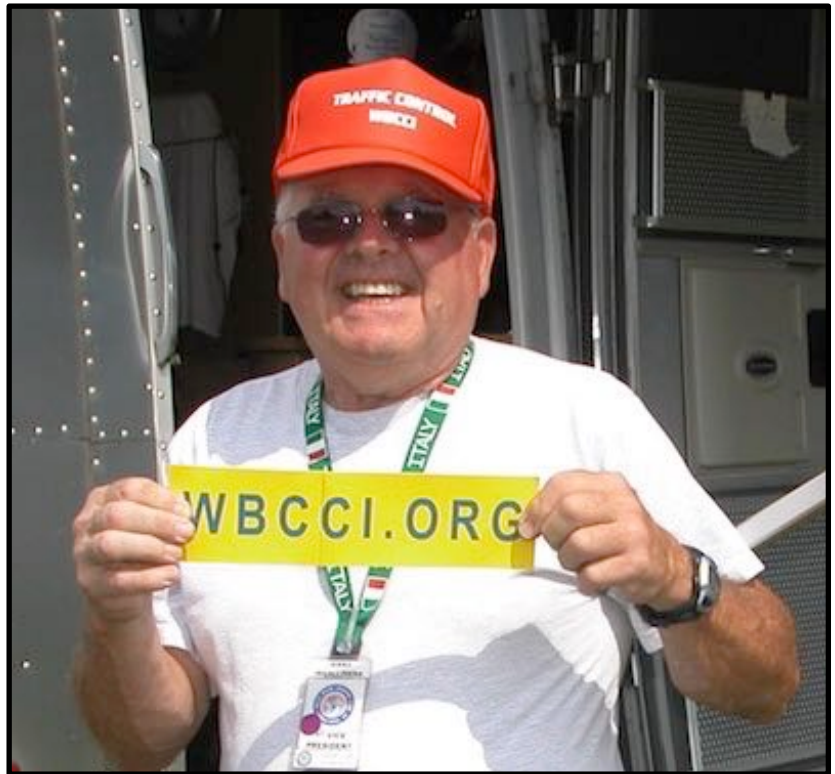

Following breakfast Saturday, we attended the annual meeting. We got a taste of the amount of prep that goes into not only these outings, but communications and events throughout the year. Hats off to Tye for all he does to keep the groups informed and the food prep was impeccable and everything seemed to run so smoothly.

Since we were visiting relatives in the area we did not stay for the potluck dinner Saturday night but heard such wonderful things that next trip we will definitely participate.

We were extremely happy to have attended the weekend at Fryeburg. We met interesting, fun, creative people who shared stories about unusual and memorable destinations. Because we are still working full time and vacation days are a precious commodity, we are stingy with commitments but we have already put next year's Providence trip on our calendar. For us, this close gathering is a wonderful way to jumpstart our Airstream season and get us out on the road! ~
