

Cancellation Policy

We know that things come up – we've probably all had to cancel at one time or another. We get it. For greatest clarity, here are the rally cancellation policies for our club.

Basically, if a cancellation incurs a cost, you will absorb that cost. For example, if the policy of the campground is that you have to cancel 2 weeks in advance to get a full refund, and you cancel 2 weeks in advance, you'll get most of your money back (minus PayPal fees of about 3% if you registered online). But if you cancel 10 days in advance, you will lose whatever the club would potentially lose on that reservation.

Each host will know the specific cancellation policies for their rally, and they can help you should a change be required. If you need to cancel, please do so as soon as you know about a conflict so someone on the waiting list can take your spot. If you need to cancel, please don't give your spot to someone else, on your own, as there may be people who have been on the waiting list for a site.

Also, if the rally you want is full, please don't just make an independent reservation at that same campground. Check first with the host to make sure that's OK. It shouldn't be much of an issue this year with no meals planned, however.
