

Greetings Everyone!

We just returned from our Land of Lincoln Rally in Springfield, IL and it was great to finally get our first 2020 rally in the books. This newsletter features pictures of our members who attended. I hope you enjoy them.

We only have three more rallies on the schedule for this year so please make your reservations soon. Refer to our schedule on the right.

I'm looking forward to seeing you down the road.

The Land of Lincoln Rally was a huge success thanks to our great hosts, the Richards. We had 22 members attending with great weather (maybe a little warm), lots of gatherings at the campground, and home-cooked food by the hosts. The Lincoln Library and Museum was impressive. Everyone enjoyed getting out in our Airstreams and it was just what we needed. Thanks to Rose Garland and Debbie Lange for all the good pictures.

A Message from Ed Knernschield

Ed has been our club president in 1999 and again in 2010. He has been a leader and mentor to many of our past and currently active members. He has informed me that he is having more difficulty walking and has sold his Airstream Atlas to Bill Thomas Camper Sales. Although he will not renew his GSLAC membership beyond this year, he remains a "friend" of our club. (A dear friend indeed)
