

Congratulations on choosing Airstream, an American icon

Built since 1932, Airstreams have captured the heart and wanderlust of RV owners for decades. Wally Byam, the pioneer builder who created Airstreams, said it best, "To strive endlessly to stir the venturesome spirit that moves you to follow a rainbow to its end, and thus make your travel dreams come true."

In 1955 the Wally Byam Caravan Club International (WBCCI), also known as the Airstream Club International (ACI), was formed and has been bringing Airstream owners together for Fun, Friendship and Adventure over the decades. Today, this international club is comprised of 12 geographic regions across North America and Europe.

Region 4 (Lower Michigan, Ohio, and West Virginia) invites you to check out the various clubs in this region and find one that interests you. Enjoy camping around water? There are clubs for that. Region 4 includes three--Great Lakes, the Ohio River, and the New River to name a few. Have your heart set on camping at festivals or special events? Yes, there are clubs that do that, and more! Visit the various club websites on the next page to find one that matches your wanderlust!
