FROM YOUR PRESIDENT:

Hi everyone,

Our first rally of the season was a huge success. Thanks to Maria Tobin for planning and organizing our “Fiesta Fun” weekend. She decorated the shelter with colorful flags and each table had small piñatas with colored bottles. I’m sure Doug and Cindy Field helped her out so thank you to you guys as well. There was plenty to eat and drink and games to play like toss the tacos. Some members got into the spirit of the event and dressed in their sombreros and ponchos. I think the highlight of Saturday night was the breaking of the piñata. Everyone took a turn at swinging the bat in an effort of getting the candy out. The piñata was stubborn and took some powerful hits until it finally broke open. I tell you the candy when flying! Eight units showed up, with a ninth one later in the day on Saturday. We had some newer members attend and a chance to get reacquainted with long time members. The weather was dry and a little cool, so the fireplace in the shelter kept us warm. Go to our Al-mon-o facebook page and see all the pictures Cody has posted.

We have a rally coming up on June 17-24th at Wolfs Camping Resort in Knox, PA being hosted by Cody Klingler and Matt Moore. Get your reservation in if you haven’t done so already. Outgoing Region 2 president Rich Short and his wife Kathi will be joining us as well as Lea Plant who is the outgoing membership chair. This is a great opportunity to meet in person some officers in our Airstream club you may have never met. In July Cody and Matt are also hosting a picnic at Boltz Shelter in East Brady on the 31st, RSVP by July 24th. In August is the Al-mon-o Blue Grass Rally make your reservations at Laurel Hill State Park or at nearby Kooser State Park. All the details for upcoming rallies and events are posted in our newsletter so please check it out.

CAMPGROUND REVIEWS

By Cody Klingler

In May, Matt and I stayed at a couple different campgrounds. The first weekend, we stayed at Vacationland in Sandy Lake and the following weekend, we stayed at Wolf's Camping Resort. The weekend at Vacationland was cold and rainy. We have decided to go back there in June, so I'm going to wait to post the review until then. As for Wolf's, since the club is going to have a rally there in June, I'm not going to post it's review. Stay tuned in the July newsletter for the rally write-up.

Fiesta Fun Rally

By Maria Tobin

What an awesome Fiesta Weekend and a great opening to the Al-Mon-O season!!! We started off Friday watching all the gorgeous Airstreams arrive at the Donegal campground in Acme, PA. What a sight! After each had time to set up, we gathered at the shelter for Happy Hour. We were graced with the presence of a few new faces. Beth Anne Mohr from Sewickly, PA and Joel and April Weber from Dubois, PA. We had a wonderful evening catching up and getting to know the new folks. We shared some heavy horderves, Fiesta smash, Fiesta sangria, Mexican sodas, DosEquis, Modelo, Coffee, Tea and a fire in the stone fireplace to keep us warm. Saturday morning breakfast at the shelter was very enjoyable. Even though they could not spend the weekend, Denny and Gayle surprised us by joining us for breakfast. Doug was kind enough to start the fire early due to the chill in the air. Was comforting and warm to have the fire going as folks arrived. It was smiles and good mornings galore. We picked up our conversations from the previous evening over our fresh mugs of coffee and some double fisted Styrofoam cups due to the Keurig overflowing. The Mexican breakfast burrito bar consisted of a smorgasbord of different sized tortillas, scrambled eggs, bacon, sausage, Mexican hash, shredded hash browns and all the yummy toppings of shredded cheddar, baby spinach, sour cream, salsa, guacamole and hot sauce. And don't forget the beverage table with grapefruit juice, orange juice, bottled water, milk, coffee and tea. Once breakfast was had, some headed out on their own adventures while some convened at Maria's Airstream to check her leaking shower faucet. We were happily surprised a second time by a visit from Bud and Alice Roberts! We spent the late morning at Maria's picnic table while trouble shooting the shower. Even the pups joined us. We ended up going to Brady's family restaurant for an impromptu delicious lunch. Upon our return, our very generous new member, Joel, offered to grill the skirt steak and chicken breasts for our fajitas. He did this using his pellet grill which gave the meats a great flavor. An amazingly fun evening ensued. We enjoyed our fajitas with saute'd onions & peppers along with sides of cilantro lime rice, yellow rice, spicy black beans, refried beans and all the toppings. With our bellies full, all 14 of us re-located to the pavilion to take on an almost indestructible pinyata. We began with three strikes each but had to up it to five. At that point, the whiffle bat broke and we had to switch to a wooden bat, no bandanas and just full on determination! Ultimately, Joel finally broke it! Although the Mexican candy within was not worth the effort, it was a lot of fun! We then moved inside to the warm fire to play taco toss. We divided up into 2 teams, each with a team captain that had to hold a fiesta plate on their head and catch their team's soft tacos that were being tossed in the air. Team Doug won with a whopping 15 tacos! Not wanting the fun to end, we gathered at the tables and proceeded to do the conversation cards at each seat. Each person took a turn reading a question, then each person answered. Was interesting to hear the answers to questions like "what's on your bucket list?" and "What was your favorite dish your grandmother made?" We learned a thing or two about each other! Sunday was another chilly morning where we enjoyed the fire while having our continental breakfast of Greek yogurt cups with fresh strawberries & blueberries & granola, bananas, hard boiled eggs, everything bagels, cinnamon bagels, orange juice, grapefruit juice and of course Coffee and Tea. Again, not wanting our time together to end, we lingered at the tables after breakfast just talking. Lots of help with cleaning up and packing up everything in the shelter. The time had come to start closing up our Airstreams. We all said our goodbye's till next time. Was a wonderful weekend of catching up and enjoying each other's company. Can't wait for the next Rally!!!
