September 8, Thursday

Check- in

Evening meal will be pot luck, “dish to share”; hot dish, salad or dessert.

Time to assemble will be at 5:30 pm at the shelter. After dinner, we meet at fireside.

September 9, Friday

> Breakfast delivered to your camper at 7:30 am.

> At 9:00 am, we leave for Lansing. First destination will be the Allamakee County Conservation Board Driftless Museum (1944 Columbus Rd, Lansing, Iowa) . At 10:30 am we will view a video of the “Driftless Region” and how it was formed. Bring your binoculars.

> Lunch at noon at Sheps restaurant overlooking the Mississippi River.

> Touring and Shopping in Lansing.

Fun shopping in Lansing (for the ladies) include Red Geranium, Gourmet Traveler, and Driftless Gypsy.

Horsfalls - Two large buildings of all the things that you didn’t know that you needed at very low prices. No credit cards - only cash or checks.

Mount Hosmer- An overlook of the Mississippi River valley.

Word of caution. The downtown of Lansing has steps that can be tricky.

Visit the tourism office that is also an office rental by-the-day or week with wifi, desks and refreshments. When we visited, a man from Tampa, Fl was at his desk working with his computer. The fee is $15.00 per day.

> There are 3 hard surface routes for the return trip to the campground. Maps will be provided and of course, your GPS can take you on routes that no one can predict.

> Friday evening meal will be served at the shelter by the hosts at 6:00 pm.

September 10, Saturday

- > Breakfast will be served by the hosts at the shelter at 8:00 am.
- > We will tour a cheese/ice cream making business at Waukon. The business is called “WW Homestead Dairy. The address is 850 Rossville Rd, Waukon. This is operated by local dairy farmers. We leave at 9:30 am. They make the best grill cheese sandwiches.
