Winter 2021

Cape Cod Massachusetts Airstream Club

Message from our President

I can't believe we are into the holidays already. I'm sure everyone is properly stuffed from Thanksgiving and now preparing for the holidays ahead of us. I am keeping my fingers crossed that COVID will become less and less. Bill and I still haven't decided if we are going south for the winter. We will continue to check COVID stats. I am starting to get my feet wet with my new role as president. I still have so many things I have to learn. I am thankful to have a patient mentor, RJ to help me on my journey. We all wish him well with his new position as Region 1 2nd VP. I am grateful for all those that have volunteered to help guide our unit to be so successful. It has been awhile since our last Capers.

The Canadian Thanksgiving/ Columbus Day Rally was huge success. This is the one rally you need to book early. We have to thank RJ for organizing this, Larry for his expertise in cooking the turkeys, Tye for making sure things were on schedule, Sam and Joe for the beautiful decorations, Kathy for keeping the fire burning and all those that prepared special dishes and deserts. Yum!

Our Holiday luncheon was organized by Larry and as always a good time and good food. Thank you Larry and the staff at Fins and Tales

I'm just giving everyone a heads up. Our Cape Cod Spring Business Meeting will be held at Region 1 Gathering (April 29-May 1, 2022). Please try and make it if you can. It will be at the Sandwich Fairgrounds in Sandwich, NH.

Region 1 Rally will be hosted by our Cape Cod Unit in 2023. We are asking for suggestions for a location that could accommodate approximately 100 trailers. If you have any suggestions, let us know and we will check-into it. Thanks.

1st Vice President Message

Craig, Karen, and Stella embarked on a 2 week fall tour beginning Oct 1st. Our first stop was Wolcott, NY at a small but wonderfully quaint campground 3 miles from Lake Ontario. (Lake Bluffs Campground). The large, tree covered sites had full hookups and were clean and level. So much to see in the area and Sodus Point is a small historical town with lots to do... apple farms galore, good restaurants, and Chimney Bluffs

Tibbetts Point

State Park only an electric bike ride away. Then on to Alexandria Bay on the St Lawrence Seaway. A must stay at the Swan Bay RV Resort and Marina! Beautiful at that time of the year. The campground keeps a daily log of when the cargo ships are going by with time and name of ship. There's also a barbecue food truck that serves on weekends, a band, a tiki bar. Very clean with full hook ups and laundry. On one excursion we stumbled upon was Tibbetts Point Lighthouse for the coastguard. Great place to snoop and have a picnic. On from there we found The Cape Winery. Another day was touring the Thousand Islands on Uncle Sam's Boat Tours, million dollar row, and the famous Boldt Castle. Will make a day of just that next year. Off to Thousand Island Winery wine tasting! Very, very good. Great hardware store nearby with everything you could possibly need. From Alexandria Bay o Brandon, Vt for our national rally through the Adirondacks State Park. Beautiful foliage ride ... you know the rest! - Craig BRN 2700

Boldt Castle

COLUMBUS DAY/CANADIAN THANKSGIVING NATIONAL RALLY 2021

One hundred pounds of turkey, 70+ friendly Airstreamers, perfect weather and Vermont leaf-peeping, we felt totally welcomed at our first Canadian Thanksgiving rally in Leicester, VT. Two huge tents went up, the 24-hour bonfire was lit, the stars were out and the spirit of giving was evident in the many hands that pitched in and all of the great food that showed up. Many thanks to our hosts RJ Dominic and Tye Mott who attended to every detail, cooked great breakfasts, and had the coffee out early. Good food and conversation flowed all weekend.

Larry Lamontagne masterfully smoked the turkeys and more than a dozen side dishes completed the meal. This was not your grandmother's "potluckish" meal, these guys can cook and organize. On the last day of the rally, a cheese and wine happy hour was followed by the dessert contest with an amazing array ranging from the prize-winning chocolate dirt cake made by Lucy Roche, Cape Cod's new President to pies and cakes galore. The whole weekend could not have been more perfect!. Reservations for 2022 anyone? - Mary Harman, BRN 2987

A Guide for New Airstreamer's Planning Ahead for the Next Camping Season

So you are new to camping, or maybe you have been an Airstreamer for a few years.

Perhaps you are not sure why you miss out on Airstream events, or you are frustrated with not being able to secure a campsite for your travels.

I know, from my experience, it took a year or two to figure out how to make reservations or to get a spot in a local or state campground. These days, with so many folks camping, it has become even harder to secure a site for the time that fits my schedule.

I wanted to take an opportunity to pass on what I think might be helpful, so you can get the most out of your Airstream in the coming season.

Most of us here in the Region One area, the Northeast and Canada, have put our rigs away for a long winter's rest. We are busy with friends and family from Thanksgiving to the New Year.

As we look out the window on cold January days and see the snow pile on the trailer, wishing we could be in a warmer climate enjoying that beautiful rig of ours - instead of dreaming of the trip you wish you were on, now is the perfect time to get a jump on how you can enjoy that rig in a few months.

There are many resources to help in planning and making memories with our Airstream friends and the friends we have not yet met. In October and November, all units in the International Airstream Club submit their schedules to be published in the Blue Beret, as well as on the Airstream Club International event calendar. There is likely an Airstream event in just about any place across the country you might have on your travel plans. In addition, most clubs publish a newsletter that will have the events and rallies they are sponsoring during the upcoming year. The schedule for our club is in this month's Capers. If you want to see what other local clubs have planned for the year to come, consider becoming an Affiliate member so you can get their newsletters as well. They might offer events that fit your schedule.

Beyond club events, other resources to consider are national/state park campgrounds and KOA camping. Booking national and state campgrounds can take some planning due to booking rules particular to each facility.

ReserveAmerica and Recreation.gov are popular sites for making your reservations. Be prepared to book sites 4, 6 and even 12 months in advance. KOA Campgrounds are generally good bets for the most popular locations across the country and becoming a KOA member offers discounted prices on your bookings.

I hope this helps you get most of what the club has to offer and that your upcoming season plans come together so you can get the most use of your Airstream. I will make regular contributions to the Capers with places and campgrounds you might like to add to your "Places to Visit" list. If you have a campground you might like me to highlight, please pass it on to me at ecarl62@gmail.com

I wish you all the best in this holiday season and in the new year to come.

Happy planning! - Eddie BRN 30924
