Cape Cod Massachusetts Airstream Club

December 2022

President's Corner

Seasons Greetings!! As many of you are aware we were socked in with 81" of snow at my cabin so I could not attend the Holiday Luncheon. I see it was very well attended by a lot of our new and seasoned members. I want to thank everyone for attending and special thanks to Larry LaMontagne for hosting, and Scott Remy (1st VP), Andrew Fowlie (2nd VP), Eddie Carl (Treasurer), and everyone else for taking care welcoming everyone . I have heard a lot of positive feedback about the party and I am very proud of all the Cape Cod members.

Let us celebrate the holiday season with remembering all the adventures and people we have meet as members of the Club. We all need to think about reaching out to members that may be alone because of different situations. So I am asking everyone to call or send a Holiday card to members, family, neighbors, military or first responders to brighten their day. A simple card or call could really put a smile on their face for the holiday season. We do have a number of people that travel alone and may not be with family or friends for the holidays. The other side of the coin is if you are alone for the holidays give a call to a person you have meet because they will love hearing from you. I will be making cards and calls myself to enjoy the company, and memories that we will chat about.

After 34 years we decided and purchased an artificial tree for the cabin. I promised myself I would always have a real tree but things change in our lives, so we embraced the change. Do I miss a real tree? Yes, but the change had to happen or there was going to be no tree. The reason I mention this is because our club is changing. I want you to be able to understand and embrace what you can and help change what you think would be a better option. I am talking about our local club as well as the International club. I want to hear from every one of your voices on your concerns and what great in OUR club. We all need to help Eddie Carl and his team with our Region One Rally this year. Knowing Eddie and our club this will be a spectacular event! Some of you are new and some never have helped on rallies before.

I would like to see all of you helping out in a way to meet and build a foundation of members for years to come. The foundation of our club when I began as 2nd VP of our club in 2010 was in no particular order was Rose & John Tavares, Dottie & Rich Walbridge, Pat & Larry LaMontagne, Gale & Trevor Lake. They did not have the technology we do today to make the rallies happen (they have had many great rallies). So in the coming months let us all give a hand and get all the jobs we can get done to make it a great rally season. If you would like to do something give me a call at 716-866-2503. This is my personal/ business cell but leave a message and I will get back to you. Yes, I do work and no I won't get in trouble as I am the owner lol. From all the Club Officers have a great Holiday Season - Tye

Region 1 News

Kathy and I are exhilarated about the enthusiasm we have found in all of our local clubs throughout the New England states, Quebec and the Maritime provinces. We got to all of your business meeting rallies either in person or electronically this fall and we're so thankful for your hospitality. Each of our Region 1 clubs has a wonderful group of volunteer officers that are presenting some outstanding venues for rallies in 2023.

I know most of you have already renewed your International dues and local club affiliations. May I encourage you to affiliate with other local clubs in your area to receive their communications about their activities whether past, present or future. Remember December 31st is the renewal deadline to have your information appear in the 2023 printed International directory.

Our Airstreams may be hibernating and our local clubs semi-dormant but your International Board of Directors, along with ACI headquarters, are abuzz with activity. The International constitutional changes voted by the membership and brought to the Delegates' Meeting in Fryeburg have required significant by-law and policy changes to support the new constitution.

Most significantly is how we choose leaders to govern our growing club. Our new elected nine-member Executive Council will have two-year terms and will be chosen from a pool of candidates every two years. The traditional International Nominating Committee has morphed into the Recruitment Oversight Committee which has the charge to encourage our best, most talented and enthusiastic members to participate in this leadership council. No prior leadership is required and you do not need to ever aspire to be the president. We just want great people providing their talents to our growing club. A standard on-line Statement of Candidacy will be asked from all interested candidates.

Each of us, as ACI members, are asked to encourage our gifted members to accept this opportunity to guide our club. Who do YOU think would be an asset to our club? The Statements of Candidacy will be collected January through March and published on the ACI website as well as the Blue Beret magazine. We all, as members, get to vote electronically this coming June for our new Executive Council members.

Considerable effort is being done to review and realign all the International Standing Committees. One noticeable change already is how the International rally is chosen and organized. With the growing complexity of these massive endeavors our professional leadership at headquarters will be spearheading these events while supported by hundreds of member-volunteers. You may have heard that our 2023 Wyoming rally is all but sold out (1,200 max). The 2024 Rally is scheduled for Sedalia, MO October 5 - 11. Yes, in October. Hopefully this will take us away from the summer heat. The 2025 Rally is likely to be in either Georgia or Pennsylvania. Keeping with the tradition of moving the International Rally around the country, sites for the 2026 rally under consideration are all in the western states.

The International Membership Committee is also undergoing a "facelift" under the direction of our new Membership Chair, Cody Klinger. It is expanding beyond the Blue Beret column to incorporate the ACI website, Facebook, and most recently, a reoccurring Zoom Fireside Chat with President Eric McHenry and Executive Officer, Lori Plummer fielding a wide variety of membership questions. Future Fireside Chats are scheduled on December 14 and March 8, both at 7pm EST. Join in, be informed and bring your questions

More locally, I want to thank Todd Brink from New England Airstream Club for volunteering to head up our Regional Membership Committee and Marty Womer from the Northeast Mountaineers to be our new Region 1 Blue Beret Contributing Editor. Please support them and keep them apprised of new rallies or membership opportunities! - Bard Fuller, Region 1

A Thank You Note From Lucy Roche

I just want to thank everyone for your cards, calls and most of all prayers. Bill is healing slowly. His balance has returned and his hand eye coordination has improved. His next hurdle is his vision. We were told it could take up to seven months. As most of you know, we were on the “Made in USA” Caravan when he had a stroke . He was hospitalized for six days in Illinois. It was so reassuring to have SkyMed organize our travel plans with just one phone call. Since Bill was unable to fly, they arranged for a car and driver to bring us home and another driver to bring our Airstream home. We are taking one step at a time and hope to meet up with everyone soon. Stay Safe

-Bill and Lucy

Pre-Holiday Luncheon

Every year CCMAC members gather for a trailer-free gathering to herald the upcoming holiday season.

Rose Tavares & Larry Lamontange,
two of the founders of CCMAC

Hosted by Larry Lamontange, approximately 20 CCMAC members met on November 19 at Fins & Tales Restaurant in Southbridge, MA for the annual Pre-Holiday Luncheon .

It is a lovely way to connect with old friends, make some new friends, and share some pre-holiday cheer.

Cut Your Own Tree Rendezvous—Freedom, NH

Andrew and I like to mark the end of our camping season by making one last trip to celebrate Thanksgiving in the woods. For years we did this on our own until two years ago when we learned about the NEAC Rendezvous - Cut Your Own Tree at Danforth Bay in Freedom, NH. Lilli & Per Hamnqvist, Doug Hart, and Denise & Steve Buck cohost the weekend, and with electric and sewer hookup (water is off for the season), Danforth Bay Campground is a comfy, cozy place to bundle up, to enjoy our Thanksgiving feast with our cats, and then to share laughs and stories around a campfire with friends.

The highlight of the rendezvous is taking a hike in the White Mountain National State Forest where, if you've purchased a tree permit, you can cut your own Christmas tree.

Joining us that weekend were Brigitte and Kevin Lussier, also of NEAC.

Tree-cutting-day dawned crisp and clear and we caravanned to the Boulder Loop Trail on the Kancamagus Highway. This 3.5 mile loop offers multiple ledges with views of the surrounding mountains and, as its name indicates, the trail is full of large, spectacular boulders.

At the top we had some great views

Magnus, Toby and Makie joined us on our hike.

And amazing icicles on the way back down.

Sadly, what there weren't any pine trees for cutting!

Still, although we came home empty handed, we had a great hike and a great time with friends.

Maybe next year! - Carolyn Collins

Caravanning in your Airstream: Highlights of the 2022 Nor' East to Nova Scotia Caravan

This summer was great season filled with a number of local rallies, rendezvous, and the International Rally right here in our backyard. Following the International Rally at Fryeburg, Russ & Rhona Fuller, and Trevor & Gale Lake hosted a caravan to the Canadian Maritimes.

Twenty-five rigs left Fryeburg on Sunday following the International Rally for our first destination, Campobello Island, New Brunswick. We spent seventeen days traveling through New Brunswick, Nova Scotia, and Prince Edward Island to some of the many picturesque and historical Harbors and municipalities of the Canadian Maritimes.

Peggy's Cove

Day trips to the famed Peggy's Cove, Moncton, Lunenburg, Halifax, Louisbourg, Baddeck, Hopewell Rocks, and Cornwall were all part of our itinerary. We were entertained by fiddlers, Gaelic dancers and the performers of "Anne of Green Gables." Other highlights we enjoyed were "Tea with Eleanor," The Alexander Graham Bell Museum, the Maritime Museum, the Cabot Trail and of course the lobster! Our hosts provided us with many options for us to choose from at every stop made this a memorable travel experience.

The King's Bastion at Louisbourg

Final thoughts for folks to consider, if you have the time and are considering signing up for the many caravans the International Club or even local Clubs offer, whether it is to an International, a National Event rally, a unique area or destination, I would suggest you do it. The places you will see and the folks you will meet only adds to the wonderful experiences that is Airstream travel - Eddie Carl

Camping Companions

Meet Doakie!

Doakie is the devoted travel companion of our esteemed Cape Cod President, Tye Mott.

Doakie is a 2 ½ year old Welsh terrier who has been camping with Tye since she was 13 weeks old.

Doakie is so enamored of Airstreaming that once she sees the rig is connected, she can't wait to get into the truck. She has been known to sit in the truck with the door open for over an hour waiting to leave. In fact, her registered AKC name is Airstream Queen.

What does Tye love about traveling with her?

“She's comfortable in the rig alone or with a full house of guests. She really is my best travel partner and travels with ease.”

Do you have a “Camping Companion”? Send us a picture and a few words and we'll clude in a future Capers

Tech Tip

Many campgrounds don't allow you to wash your car or Airstream. I have found Aero Cosmetics Wash Wax All to be a good product as a waterless wash and wax, or a wax as you dry after wet washing. It leaves an anti-static, non-stick, UV-protective coating on everything you clean. Easy to Use - Spray on and wipe dry.—Andrew
