Cape Cod Massachusetts Airstream Club

President's Corner

Hello Cape Cod Airstream Friends!

It sure is nice to see the bright colors of Spring in our landscapes as it ushers in even more beauty to the outdoors. I know the ultra-warm temperatures experienced by those who had the good fortune to participate in the Pets and Paws Rally in P-town last month were rewarded by awesome weather and a good time.

June will bring more opportunities to camp with fellow CCMACers and other Airstreamers. The Scusset Beach Rendezvous is the first weekend of June, followed by the BIG ONE, the Flocking the Cape Region One Rally, June 15-18 at the Barnstable County Fairgrounds. There is still room if you wish to attend and just as important, we are still looking for volunteers. We are happy to have all those who are willing to help out in any area of interest to you. So, thanks for considering that. I want to thank all the folks who have been working tirelessly with planning and organizing this great rally. There is so much that goes into making rallies happen; thanks so much to all of you. We are still taking good condition items for the raffle; email me with any items you may have to offer.

Before we even enter into June, most of us will celebrate Memorial Day, the last Monday of the month and considered by many to be the unofficial start of summer. To some of my "Motor-Head" buddies, it is the weekend of the "Indy 500", an annual automobile race that is held in Indianapolis, Indiana.

Apart from marking summer or car races, however, the true meaning of Memorial Day is to honor those that have lost their lives while defending this country. To me, Memorial Day is a time that I feel especially grateful to those people, whom I never knew, who sacrificed their lives so we could have the freedom and privilege to enjoy a high quality of life in these United States of America.

While I am sure that many of you Airstreamers have already been on the road this season, please be sure to always do safety checks on your rig before setting out on the next part of your traveling adventures.

To all the Moms in our unit, and Moms everywhere, I want to wish you a Happy Mother's Day. Have a fun and safe time as we celebrate our Memorial Day Holiday and see you on the road! Thank you so much

– Scott, BRN 27900

Pets & Paws Rally 2023: Review from the Newbies

April 7, 2023 was a cold day. The sky's were cloudy and the wind invariably kicked up just as we passed the gatehouse for the Coastal Acres Campground. My husband Doug and I pulled our new Basecamp around the bend as our dog Wellington stared out the window wondering where we had just landed. Little did we know that the magic of an Airstream gathering was about to unfold.

Doug and I had purchased our Basecamp about a month earlier and we quickly discovered that an entire community of Airstream enthusiasts existed. Events big and small, near and far away, so much to do, something for everyone it seemed. This event seemed intriguing when we first noticed it after joining the Cape Cod group. Pets and Paws seemed appropriate for our dog Wellington who actually loves camping and with one of our favorite destinations, Provincetown, It felt as if the universe was coming together.

Over the course of the next day or so we were literally blown away (yes it was windy, but we also had the best experience with the most amazing Airstream folks). From the Drag Happy hour, to the Easter egg coloring, to the delicious dinner put on by the local masonic lodge, we were warmly welcomed into the Airstream fold. Our trek into Provincetown with the dogs brought us all together and the spectacle on Commercial Street got us more than a few curious stares.

Looking back, we loved our inaugural Airstream event and our dog Wellington did too. Doug and I continue to be struck by the warm and friendly welcome from the group. It is truly rare in this day and age, to be welcomed into a community of folks without reservation or pretense, and that was our experience. We are looking forward to many many more Airstream adventures with our new friends

BRN (Big Red Numbers) - Why do we Have Them?

“Imagine leading a caravan of 63 or so Airstreams throughout Central America not now, but in 1951-1952. That’s what Wally Byam, founder of Airstream, Inc., Estelle “Stella” Hall and his 12-year old second cousin Dale “Pee Wee” Schwamborn set out to do on December 1, 1951. Without having the benefit of cell phones or GPS to connect with caravan members, Wally assigned big red numbers (sometimes referred to as BRN) which were placed on the front and rear end-cap of the Airstreams – making it easier to keep track of a large group of travelers facing rugged terrain and many weather-related problems. Wally and Stella Byam often traveled at the front of these caravans, easily identifiable by the big red #1 on their Airstream.

For 60+ years the Airstream Club International has continued to assign numbers to each of their 7,500+ members around the world.” - Airstreamclub.org

ACI strongly encourages members to display their Big Red Numbers at all Airstream events, it not only continues the tradition of WBCCI but they identify your shiny rig from all the other shiny rigs in an emergency,

Note that you don't have to permanently apply decals to your rig (most ACI members do) but you also can attach the numbers to a piece of plexiglass or aluminum and display when you arrive at the event, by attaching to the stone guards, propane tank, or a sign stuck in the ground. You can also display them with a solar-powered light-up display, available at airboardshop.com.

Pets & Paws Rally 2023 Part 2

The first rally of the season is always anxiously awaited. This year's Pets and Paws was no different for the thirty some odd New Englander's rigs. An overcast and blustery day gave way to sunshine and cool breezes for the balance of our time in Provincetown.

A few early birds greeted those that followed throughout the day on Friday. As usual, all gathered around the heavy hors d'oeuvres under the tented sky. A few brazen souls were costumed with a distinctly Provincetown vibe in the theme of the evening's professional entertainment. They were a big hit! The chilly air precipitated an early evening. Sunshine greeted everyone Saturday morning where Rick and Sandi put out a fabulous gourmet spread, which included a Bloody Mary Bar that would raise Mary herself from the grave. The abounding sunshine keep us all mingling until the post lunchtime costumed doggy parade left the grounds to wow the multitude of tourist on Commercial Street.

Saturday evening's main event was a most unique meal at the circa 1850 Masonic Lodge downtown. Rally goers were treated to a sit down pasta meal with all the fixings served by the Grand Poo Bah himself. Following dessert a tour of the grand Hall enthralled the crowd.

All good things, at some point must end, and Sunday saw the lazy departure of most with salutations of "see ya down the road". A great time was had by all.
