

A Pirate Palooza

Pismo Beach Rally November 8-12, 2023
Pismo Coast Village RV Resort
165 S Dolliver St
Pismo Beach, CA 93449

Ahoy matey! Our silver ships be dockin' at The Pismo Coast Village RV Resort this November, in a salute to the possible pirate past of the area, including Pirates Cove, located between Avila and Pismo Beaches.

Arrrgh! Fly your Jolly Roger and make a point to be there. Lore has it that Sir Francis Drake (pirate), after looting Spanish settlements, stopped at the nearby Pirates Cove on his way up the Coast of California in the 1570s and buried treasure in the area. Of course, this could be a hoax, made up by enterprising real estate agents, but it is no hoax that the cove was used by rum runners and illicit bootleggers during prohibition, keeping the Central Coast area fully stocked in alcohol back then.

The star of this rally is The Beach, so we are giving you plenty of time to enjoy it (the Park has direct access so you do not have to drive to it), as well as views of the briney deep and other beautiful scenery in the area, Pismo City itself, and maybe even Pirates Cove (heads up: it is a nudist beach now). In November, the butterflies are supposed to return to nearby Monarch Grove.

Some beach games will be available for those interested, and if the weather cooperates and there is interest, on Thursday, we may put a bunch of fire pits into our trucks and head down to the State beach for a happy-hour sunset watch.

Avast ye! Each evening at 4:30 (except Friday) there will be a happy hour in the clubhouse (or somewhere). On Wednesday we will start the rally off with a Clam Chowder Supper with fresh, award-winning, and iconic local Splash Clam Chowder, along with salad, sourdough bread and desert. (Vegan option will be available.)

Thursday, you will be on your own. Friday night we will assemble at 6:30 p.m. at the Oceano Great American Melodrama to see "Trudy and the Beast." Come find out what lurks in the fog-swept lagoon by the 13th hole of the Black Lake Golf Course in Nipomo and why? We got a great discount on tickets!

Saturday night we will have a pirate trivia contest, followed by a full service dinner catered by the on-site restaurant, consisting of salad, BBQ chicken and Tri Tip, rice pilaf, chili beans and desert. (Vegan option available).

Then, just like that, the hosted portion of the rally is over, and our ships be pulling out of port for another adventure come sunrise. So to all you Seadogs and Scallywags: shiver your timbers, shake your booty, and practice your "Yo Ho Hos" to get ready for a fun time at Pismo. Costumes optional.
