Hot Dog Trivia-Nathan's Skinless Beef Franks

Consumer Reports, June, 2023

The original. The best. The pinnacle of a hot dog. This one comes from one of the oldest hot dog companies in America. Its founder, Nathan Handwerker, was a Polish immigrant who worked at a Coney Island hot dog stand until he was able to scrounge up enough money to open his own business in 1916. That full century of expertise is evident in this hot dog. One evaluator called it “the Goldilocks of hot dogs: crisp skin, subtle spice, uniform texture, and juicy.”
