Greetings Mountaineers!

The spring and summer camping season still seems far off, and for most of us, our Airstreams will remain in hibernation for at least another month. But it's a good time to make your plans and reservations for when you finally drain the anti-freeze from your water lines.

For most NEMAC events, unless otherwise specified, you make your own reservations, dealing directly with the site or a booking agency such as Reserveamerica. Each event has a NEMAC "host" who will be a contact person for the event and organize the social gatherings and any activities.

Each NEMAC event also has a detailed information sheet available.

This newsletter includes a list of our planned official and informal events, and the names of participants who have told us they are coming. If you have registered for an event and your name is missing, please tell us. Likewise if your plans have changed.

Sarah, Felix, and Michael Giunta

Hardy Mountaineers gathered for a delicious lunch at the Concord Common Man Restaurant on January 28. Drifting snow prevented several members from coming, but those that made it were glad they did. Thanks to Jim Reck for organizing it.

Mountaineer TripShare E-mail Group

Let's say you're planning your own trip to Boothbay or Letchworth State Park or Jersey Shorehaven Airstream Park or ???, and you want others to know about it, in case they would like to join you. Or you're looking for good ideas for a trip.

We are setting up an experimental email group for members to share their plans. If you choose to join the group, you will be able to see where others are going, and share your own trip plans. Look for an email on this subject in the next day or two, and reply by March 18 to opt-in.

It will be an open group – your email address will be in the "TO" space, not hidden in "BCC", so you can communicate directly with another member about their plan.

Membership Directory

With this newsletter, we're attaching the current edition of our membership directory. Membership code indicates regular member (R), affiliate member (A), new member (N), and the year of the last renewal (hint: it's not too late...) Please communicate any corrections.

We would also like to add photos to the directory. If you'd like to do so, please send the Secretary a photo of yourself, partner, and offspring if any – preferably a close-up like the example here.
