Malibu Rally, July 18, 2024, by Jo Salzer

The Malibu rally was amazing. We had 7 rigs all parked near one another with ocean views. The weather was perfect. Malibu RV park is located on Pacific Coast Highway and has endless views of the Pacific. The park has undergone improvements in the last few years. They've added an expanse of lawn with picnic tables and fire pits. We took advantage of this on our nightly happy hours. At various times we'd spot dolphins making their way up and down the coast, seals frolicking near the beach. The sunsets were gorgeous.

Hosts Max and Michele Stering had been there all week. It's one of their favorite summer vacation destinations. It was fun to see them suit up and head to beach to boogie board everyday. They're our cool kids 🤘 and such a delightful couple.

Our group had reservations at the Getty Villa Museum, built in the Roman style, the mansion and estate houses an impressive collection of art and ancient artifacts. The villa was built where J. Paul Getty's Ranch House once stood. The ranch house was also a gallery and museum of sorts, but his vast collection outgrew the space. He decided on the Roman style villa. Sadly he never saw his creation. The grounds, pool and gardens are beautiful. It's free to visit but you must have advance reservations.

Malibu Rally 2024 by Jo Salzer

This stretch of PCH has seemingly endless opportunities to dine out with an ocean view. Everyone had a favorite. Our last evening had us wandering down the path to Malibu Seafood, a casual but tasty seafood restaurant just steps from the park. We could bring our own libations, order fresh seafood, and enjoy a picnic-style dinner.

We all had such a good time that we've booked it again for July 2025. Watch for registration.

Join us for a return visit to The Valley of Fire. Join the Dutch oven cooking masters Dale and Max, who will provide two delicious dinners and a fantastic breakfast. Space is limited to 10 rigs; register early. There are two spaces left, and we are working on a waitlist in case a cancellation opens up a spot for those who wish to attend.

February 20-23 Modernism Week

Palm Springs is in mid-month during Modernism Week. Tours of Modernism are booked up quickly, so book early. Additionally, Palm Springs has some great theater entertainment options, such as comedy and dinner shows.

Feb 28 to March 2 Lake Havasu Bluegrass Festival

Mosey on over to Lake Havasu for the Bluegrass Festival. This is a joint rally with the Utah Airstream Club. There is a lot to do in this little town. Listen to some music and explore the area.

April 3-7 Boulder Beach Campground

Let's return to our youths to celebrate National Kids Day by camping at Boulder Beach Campground. Join in for fun activities and explore Lake Mead and or Boulder City. Social meeting on April 5 at the campground.

May 8-12 Ventura, CA

LVAC will host a rally at the Waypoint Village RV Park in Ventura, CA. This cute RV park has vintage trailers. It is close to the beach, where you can hear the surf and smell the ocean air.

Region 12 Rally at Lake Tahoe, Nevada, by Diane Hancock

This year, the Region 12 rally was held in beautiful Lake Tahoe. There were 150 Airstream Trailers and a few Vintage trailers. The Tahoe Valley Campground was huge, with Airstream trailers in every section.

Our time at the rally was filled with a diverse range of activities. Vinnie from Vinnie's Airstream led a seminar on installing the Airsafe Hitch, followed by a lively question-and-answer session. We also had group bike rides, crafting sessions, and nature hikes. For those seeking a more relaxed experience, a dinner cruise on Lake Tahoe was a perfect choice. The variety of activities ensured that there was something for everyone to enjoy.

The Region 12 rally team chose Lake Tahoe Wildlife Care as the recipient of the silent auction basket proceeds. Our Las Vegas Airstream Club generously donated an overflowing basket of goods. In addition, Dale Musser crafted a one-of-a-kind birdhouse, which members could contribute to with monetary donations. I am thrilled to announce that the birdhouse sold for $600, and the donated money inside amounted to $500. This is a testament to our community's generosity and commitment to wildlife care. Thank you, Dale, for your contribution. Thank you to Jo, Lynn, and Janette for helping with the LVAC basket.

As we bid farewell to the Region rally, we eagerly anticipate the next one. Mark your calendars for October 2025, when we will gather once again, this time at Bonelli Bluffs. We look forward to seeing you there!

Social Meeting highlights

Twenty members gathered for the social meeting at Diane and Gary Chimko's lovely Henderson home. We kept the club business meeting short and discussed the upcoming election of officers and chair positions. We are adding regular social meetings to our yearly calendar. The time and location will vary. The first will be on February 1st, followed by the first Saturday of every other month.

No one seems to object to receiving emails from the club, but we on the board have tried to limit them. We intend to send out monthly emails, with others as needed. We also decided to explore group texting apps to communicate. By a show of hands, texting was the preferred mode of communication. Members are encouraged to post on our Facebook and Instagram accounts, which are only seen by club members. Melissa St. Andre will help out with the Instagram account.

Everyone brought a lot of shareable food, making it a feast. We spent the remainder of the afternoon just catching up with each other. We have such a fun-loving club.
