CAC Finances

- ACI and CAC are not-for-profit
- Sources of income: club membership, rally fees
- Expenses: processing/subscription fees for online registration, rally reimbursement, gift cards, the Ocean Lakes rally, donations
- Reporting: monthly, yearly, as requested
- Questions? Email 021treasurer@gmail.com

Emails

- Examples: rally updates, newsletter, welcome email, survey
- You can reply; your reply will either be answered or forwarded
- If your email bounces, the corresponding secretary will contact you; you might need to use a personal email instead of business email
- If you want to contact other ACI members, visit the ACI directory on the ACI website

Say What?

- BRN: Big red number
- Setup/service: Your plates, cutlery to bring to a meal
- GAM: Get Acquainted Meeting
- Courtesy Parking: Parking in another member's driveway or yard
- Flamingoed: An anonymous gift left at your trailer, featuring a flamingo.

What Makes CAC Special?

- CAC is one of the oldest ACI clubs – established in 1960, only 5 years after WBCCI was established
- CAC members are active across WBCCI
 - Past president of WBCCI
 - Current member of ACI executive council and International Board of Trustees
 - Past president of the Wally Byam Amateur Radio Club
 - Current chair of the ACI caravan committee
 - 1st VP of Region 3
 - 4 members of the International Rally Planning team
 - ACI-level support of website and communications
- All but one of the Airstream local clubs in the Carolinas originated from CAC
- CAC sponsors more rallies than most other local clubs
