HISTORIC STAUNTON

Beverley Street and MORE

I'm building a Tour Guide to vetted sights and sounds of this Historic City.

We visited with Terah Cox at Words Matter Gift Shop last Wednesday. What a fabulous, curated collection of books and wisdom. Visit her at 110 East Beverley.

My Son, Jason, took me out for a Birthday Lunch at the Byers Street Bistro. As a treat the waitress brought me vanilla ice cream with caramel drizzle in a martini glass - 18 Byers Street.

I suspect many of you have "winterized" the rig unless you have a trip down south planned in the coming months. The Silver Otter III sits in storage, longing for Spring.

KITTY FEE PAYS FOR FOOD AND FUN

3 Nights Hotel — 2 Dinners — 2 Shows

Breakfast is included at the hotel. Dinners Friday night and Saturday night will be hosted by the Club at two different local fine restaurants (adult beverages on your own).

Friday evening we celebrate with a riotous performance of King Lear at the Blackfriars.

Saturday evening will include a movie of your choice and popcorn at the unique Visulite Cinema.

Like a “Cruise” without leaving Virginia

2 PM Friday offers the “on-your-own” opportunity to visit the Accordia Wine Bar for a private charcuterie and wine tasting seminar from the owners. [$33.69 per person - 114 East Beverly Street in Staunton.]
