207 Carteret St. | BATH, NC

European settlement near the Pamlico River in the 1690s led to the creation of Bath, North Carolina's first town, in 1705. The town's location seemed ideal, with easy access to the river and the Atlantic Ocean 50 miles away at Ocracoke Inlet. A library sent to St. Thomas Parish in 1701 became the first public library in the colony. The parish also...

Downtown Galax

- Galax, Virginia is only 7 miles away and is the Capital of Old Time & Bluegrass Music. Galax offers everything from quaint downtown shops to hiking and great restaurants. Galax, Virginia is home to the oldest & largest Old Time Bluegrass Fiddler's Convention. Hiking, Biking & Walking the New River Trail State Park is a great way to enjoy the great outdoors. Galax is on The Crooked Road, Virginia's music heritage trail, you will find The Rex Theater, in Galax, which puts on a Friday night show called the Blue Ridge Back Roads. If you are travelling the Crooked Road, stop by and see us! There are many golf courses in the area. Cumberland Knob State Park, The Blue Ridge Parkway, the Blue Ridge Music Center and the New River are all a short drive away. 20 miles to Mt. Airy, NC, hometown of Andy Griffith. Local festivals offer much entertainment and great crafts all throughout the year!

The Rex Theater

- Every Friday night from 7:00 pm to 9:00 pm in the City of Galax, Virginia WBRF 98.1 FM sends out 100,000 watts of live old-time and bluegrass music from the stage of the historic Rex Theater into five states and over the World Wide Web. Listeners may be in Virginia, North Carolina, West Virginia, Tennessee or as far away as Egypt enjoying the traditional music show from the comfort of their own homes, or they may be sitting back in one of the 475 seats at the Rex. The show is called Blue Ridge Back Roads and thanks to a faithful group of volunteers, it has become the cornerstone for the revitalization of this 70 year old theater.

Blue Ridge Music Center

- The sounds of the Fiddle, Banjo, and Guitar are likely to welcome you when you visit the Blue Ridge Music Center located just 4 miles from Cool Breeze. A must visit place for day time music everyday 12:00 pm to 4:00 pm and a Saturday night show each week starting at 7:00 pm . The music center is open May thru October each year.

New River Trail

- Southern Virginia's New River Trail is one of America's premier rails to trails parks and has been designated as an official National Recreation Trail by the US Department of the Interior. It is also a state park running through Grayson, Carroll, Wythe, and Pulaski counties along the New River. In 1986, the Norfolk Southern Railroad donated the railroad corridor, which originally served to supply the once expanding iron industry to the Commonwealth of Virginia.
