

York County Blues Festival

Date: 8/16/25-8/18/25

Hosts: Roger & Anna Nagy

Please join us for a boondocking event on our property located at 15 Helenfield Dr., Alfred, ME with an evening at the 7th annual York County Blues Festival organized by the town of Waterboro's Parks and Recreation.

Camping will be limited to 12 units. We do have room for additional campers on other parts of the property.

Campers are welcome to arrive before Friday or stay after Sunday if you choose. Generators are allowed from 7:00 AM-9:00 PM. The sewage treatment plant for the City of Sanford (approximately 10 miles away) has a specific dump station for RVs that is open 8:00 AM -2:00 PM M-F. There is a $10.00 fee to dump but you'll have to use your onboard water for flushing.

Saturday afternoon we'll head to the York County Blues Festival located at Friendship Park (255 Old Alfred Rd., Waterboro, ME). Carpooling is advised due to limited parking. Last year there were approximately 1,000 attendees.

Tickets are $20.00 and may be purchased beginning 1/13/25 through their website: <https://yorkcountybluesfest.com>. It is recommended tickets be purchased early as the event has previously sold out.

The website also contains the performers bios.

From their website of FAQs:

- You may bring blankets and chairs
