President's Messages

Outgoing

"Sh-Boom," 2023 is behind us.

It is time to let others shine as I sit on the sidelines looking on and listening to what others have to say. Thank you all for supporting me during my term as President. I very much appreciated all your comments offered during the final hours of our Black Oak Rally.

As you know, my theme for 2023 was "Keep on Traveling", and Deborah and I plan to continue doing just that.

We look forward to seeing many at future rallies, beginning with next month's Furnace Creek Flash Rally in Death Valley. Hopefully many of you will be joining us. Being so far South, it is a great starting point for us to venture further South and visit family and friends in San Diego (and/or find another destination and/or do both). Hopefully many will do the same and take advantage of the location. We do have plans in May to be in Carlsbad, CA for at least a week, if not longer. Our big adventure, as previously shared, will be our extended visit to Europe in late Summer to early Fall. Despite all of these plans, you can expect us to throw something else into the traveling fire that burns within Saludos NorCal Members! Happy New Year. I am delighted to be NorCal's President for 2024. First Partner José and I love camping, exploring new places, stargazing and riding our bikes on country roads.

When we finally realized that tent camping was getting harder, we bought our 27' Airstream International Signature. We immediately fell in love. What's not to love about it, eh? Our plan was to go on an occasional road trip to a place we had never been and be happy retirees enjoying our golden years.

Little did we know what was ahead. Soon we heard about a club called WBCCI and something about big red numbers. We did a bit of research to figure out which local club would be a good fit for us. We liked NorCal's impressive list of rallies, the stories we read in the Poppy, the happy faces in the photos. We joined NorCal and what a good fit it has been!

Over the last eight years José and I have hosted many rallies, a caravan to the Oregon Coast during the pandemic, and have served on committees and in positions of leadership. We were the first to bring bicycles to rallies and go on rides. At the time, people probably thought we were crazy. Now we have many members who bring their bikes and group rides are Happy New Year! This issue starts the 61st year of The Poppy, and the 5th year with me at the helm. I have said before, and it bears repeating, that I can't do this job by myself – it requires the support of many people who help to make it happen.

Thanks go to Billie Verdegaal, my proof reader extraordinaire, who goes through the proof and catches my mistakes and oversights; Marget Williams who, without fail, timely sends me all the membership information, including birthdays and anniversaries so I can easily access and use it; Jim Christie for getting his messages and photos to me in a very timely manner and with little muss or fuss; all those who took and contributed photos such as Lori Bibby, Bob Echols, Marget Williams, Gail Crutchfield, Bob Vasser and others as I cannot be everywhere at once; Tom Smithson for providing the mailing list to me monthly and upon request; all the rally hosts for timely getting their information to me, both before and after their rally which is a huge help (!), with special shout out to Scott Beck who got me his information an entire month before it was due which allowed me to prepare the rally blast before I embarked on the caravan to the International (sooo appreciated!) and anyone who contributed anything to the Poppy. There were not many submissions last year, but you know who you are, and I appreciate that you took the time and engaged in the effort! Finally, thanks goes to Ed for his patience when I have to create the Poppy, especially when we are on the road.

This year will be a bit of a challenge as Ed and I will be embarking on our first International Caravan, The Six Shooter through Texas, by way of the Four Corners Unit's Eclipse Rally at the Legato Winery near Austin, Texas. This means that for two months, all of April and May, we will be on the road, with who knows what wi-fi or cell availability since we do not have We-boost or Starlink or whatever. How this will work will be interesting, so bear with me if the format changes for those few months.

Which reminds me: If anyone else is venturing out to an eclipse rally or another caravan, please send in your information about the experience and pictures so everyone can enjoy your adventures. Not everyone is on Facebook, or is your FB "friend," so this is a great way to share with Club members. Plus, if you have anything to share that celebrates our Club, members, travel, technical advice, product recommendations, stories, milestones, and rally or caravan information, bring it on!

Those who attended the Felton Rally may be aware that a reporter for the Santa Cruz Goodtimes came to the rally to interview some of us for an article he was writing about Airstreams. Evidently he is restoring one that he is passionate about. Well, the article has been published and can be read at: <https://www.goodtimes.sc/>. Didn't know that Airstreams were keeping us out of Assisted Living, but interesting article nonetheless. "Paul" and "Glenn" were quoted. (Thanks to Carole Echols for the link.)

There is no Poppy in February but we will have a blast for registration of the April rally in Napa. So have a great beginning to the New Year and happy days ahead Airstreaming in 2024.

NorCalers Attend Region 12 Rally in Pismo Beach

The Region 12 Rally in 2023 was held at the Pismo Coast Village RV Resort October 25 - 29. Several NorCalers attended, many who had never been to a NorCal Rally. The event was super fun, in part because it was held during the time the Resort celebrates Halloween by reserving a whole area for RVers who seriously and extravagantly decorate their RV and site during at least one week before Halloween. At night, it was like walking through Disneyland, with lights and animatronics. The rally planners also had intriguing events such as a roving "happy hour" hosted at 10 different trailers by their owners, with a small subsidy from the club. You could visit as many trailers as you wanted. Each did something different, and most hosts and hostesses dressed up for the occasion in Halloween gear. There was also a Region trailer decorating contest that I did not win despite the fact my spiders were helping to eliminate the overpopulation of flamingos, along with a pets and people costume contest.

The food offerings at the rally were pretty good too: a catered taco night with several choices, a burrito breakfast, another breakfast featuring cinnamon buns from the Old West Cinnamon Bun Company, and on the last night, a wonderful chicken and brisket dinner cooked by caterer Mario, along with a libation of your choice. The clubhouse and outside patio area with fire pits were fully available during the rally and were very pleasant to sit around in the mornings and evenings. The rest of the time, you could just enjoy the area.

A highlight of the event was the silent auction to raise money for two local charities vetted by the rally committee. Baskets were donated to the auction by every Club in the Region except for NorCal for some reason. In any event, when the dust had settled, the Region raised over $5,000 for two deserving charities vetted by the planning committee. Doug Fitzgerald won a basket donated by the Sierra Club, while yours truly was the high bidder on a flamingo quilt donated by First Lady LaVerne McHenry after she won it at the Potlatch Rally in Olympia, Washington, earlier this year.

Next year's region rally will be held in Bishop next September 11-15, off Highway 395. This area is close to wonderful sightseeing and many points of interest.

Pirate Palooza!

NorCal November Rally 2023

Over 30 Airstreams docked at the Pismo Coast Village RV Resort for the Pirate Palooza Rally last November, one week after the Region 12 Rally celebrated Halloween there. The hosts were initially thrown for a loop when they learned they were marooned with no indoor rally facility. However, they quickly regrouped and prevented a total shipwreck by creating a small gathering area between two trailers, then decorating the area with skull lights and lanterns under a billowing pirate flag. Fortunately the weather cooperated.

As vessels came into camp, they were met by the Welcoming Crew of Tary Salinger and Ed Ungerman and given goodie bags featuring Janie Salinger's Pirate Booty, a flamingo coin purse containing a large chocolate gold doubloon, and a list of pirate phrases and words. Blimey! Wednesday evening, the hosts proffered hot grog and cider to thirsty pirates who then feasted on proffered appetizers in the outdoor quarters. Turned out to be quite fun and festive, if not a bit cramped, and many said they liked the grog and cider party better than a meal on Wednesday evening. New members at their first NorCal Rally were introduced and greeted: Joanne Bowsman & Shing Kong, and Joseph & Linda Riggs. Flo Krauter dressed up for the occasion.

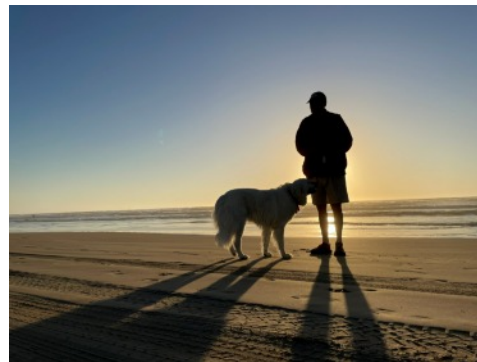

Thursday night, the grog and cider party continued with fresh appetizers. Our mateys enjoyed the time ashore, turning the happy "hour" into an evening-long event for many. Unfortunately, earlier in the day, the Ungermans were informed that Elisa's mom was sent to the Emergency Room, so they had to leave the rally and the execution of the remainder of the rally in the capable hands of the Salingers.

Friday night, the majority of mateys headed up the road to the Oceano Melodrama to see Trudy and the Beast, a take-off on Beauty and the Beast. "It was fabulous," noted Janie Salinger, "a really fun rally activity! The cast was so good and they had everyone laughing throughout the show." (Photo right of cast members)

During the days, pirates could be seen biking, hiking on the beach, taking in the sites of the area such as the Pismo Pier or Avila Beach, visiting the nearby Monarch Butterfly Grove where butterflies were visible, eating biscuits at Grovers Beach Sourdough or cinnamon rolls at Old West Cinnamon Rolls, etc. The weather was perfect for many outdoor activities.

Saturday night was the headliner event in the clubhouse: a sit down, fully plated and served dinner of brisket and chicken with several sides, salad and dessert. Gold chocolate doubloons and small bottles of “smuggled” alcohol spilled out from treasure chests centered on a pirate treasure map covering the tables. But before the dinner, there was fun: several people dressed up as pirates and wenches (of course Dean and Chris Davison nailed it) and there was a pirate trivia contest mc'd by Tary Salinger and won by Ludmilla Eyd't's table (her son, Matteo, is evidently a pirate expert); and Gary deSmet won a prize for the most consistent wearing of a pirate costume, although he swore it was not a costume. Jose Ortiz handled birthdays and

After dinner, a BRN raffle was held, with various pirate-themed blankets as prizes for the upcoming cold weather. One was given to Matteo since it was his birthday. Other prizes (silicon skull ice cube molds) were given out too. Thank-you gifts were given to our caterer, Mario, (owner of the Rock and Roll Diner in Oceano and the Pismo Café at the RV Park) who secured our use of the clubhouse on Saturday night and saved our hineys. (If you are in the area – please support his businesses; his food is very good!) By the end of the evening, all the “smuggled” alcohol was gone along with most of the doubloons, the sign of a good evening among pirates. The next day, the pirates battened down their hatches and sailed off to new ports of call, say the Black Oak Casino in Tuolumne.

Epilogue: Thank you to everyone who expressed concern about my Mom. She had an infection that fortunately was caught in time in the ER, and addressed with antibiotics. Roughly 12 hours later, she was released from the ER and reports that after about 10 days, she felt “normal.” – Elisa

Black Oak Casino Rally

Nor Cal December Rally 2023

We had beautiful weather at the Black Oak Rally this year. It did rain, but only at night after most folks were tucked into their trailers. Envision at night, the sparkling Christmas lights on the shiny Airstreams: it was beautiful.

Bonus: Attendees received a gift of limited edition Airstream Playing Cards! [Ed note; designed by host Amy Webster.]

The rally opened with a Happy Hour and Hors d'oeuvre gathering on Wednesday evening, November 29. There were so many great nibbles, many of us made our dinner from the provided tasty bites.

That was followed by a tournament of the dice game "5,000" and several attendees won prizes.

Thursday was the Chili-Cookoff; even our flamingos had cowboy hats and scarves on. With more than 23 pots of chili, there was a lot to taste. We had three winners: voted best vegetarian chili was Carmen Ortiz, best traditional chili was Phyllis Minadeo and best overall (and best unusual chili as well) was Lori Bibby. The President's choice award went to Mark Winchell for the best dressed crockpot. Once the tasting was over, we continued to eat all the wonderful chili that was left for dinner, along with provided sides. Many of the pots were scraped clean before we were done and even Santa was seen testing chili. One guest complimented the entire group saying "None of the chili sucked!"

Friday morning we had a cookie exchange and chance to gather together in the clubhouse for a few hours. The company was wonderful, the cookies tasty and we had so many to share we delivered cookies to the Black Oak Resort Staff. The clubhouse was open that evening for those who decided to stay around the camp. But others walked the Columbia Lantern Tour or dined in some of the great restaurants near Black Oak. A few even braved the Black Oak Casino for a little action.

Cookies, cookies, and more cookies!

Saturday was the charity auction for ATCAA (Amador Tuolumne Action Agency <https://www.atcaa.org/donate>). While bidding the auction attendees were able to see a demonstration of bobbin lace! There were about 70 auction lots donated, and the auction raised $5,123.00 for ATCAA which included donations of cash beyond auction bid amounts.

All rally long folks donated non-perishable food supplies to the ATCAA, so we delivered over 300 pounds of food along with the money on Monday Morning. NorCal demonstrated their charitable hearts this year. Lisa and Joi, who help run the ATCAA food bank, were elated with the donation. Thanks to all of you.

Greetings NorCal Airstreamers,

I hope this little blurb finds you all looking forward to what looks like a fun filled and interesting 2024. I wanted to give you all an update and reminders with our upcoming rallies for 2024. February 7th-11th : Flash Rally in Death Valley National Park at Furnace Creek campground. Make your own reservations, then sending your information to Lori Bibby at norcalregistrar3854@gmail.com Carmen Ortiz is the contact person for this rally.

March 6th-10th : In Buellton at the Flying Flags RV Park. We still have a few sites available if you are interested in joining in what looks to be an amazing weekend filled with lots of tasty food and activities. If you're interested, please go to our website and register with the Jotform for the March Rally. Those who already registered for their site in November will receive an email from the hosts in January regarding meals, tours and activities during the rally. Attendees will need to fill out a Jotform to signup for different events. The email will have all the details.

April 3rd-7th : In Napa at the Napa Valley Expo RV Park. We have reserved the entire RV park right in the center of town, this is a rally that you don't want to miss. Registration will come out in the February 1st Poppy edition.

June 12th-16 : Quincy at Pioneer RV Park, Who doesn't love Plumas County surrounded by majestic mountains, pine trees and a nice cool breeze? This is one of my personal favorite spots with the cute little town nearby with good food and fun shops. It will be a perfect time to get away from it all and have some fun with our Airstream friends. Registration will come out in the April 1st Poppy edition.

August 7th-11th : Ah, the coveted Costanoa. This should be a very fun and different rally with members making their own reservations a year in advance. We will have camp counselors, which should be a fun twist to our typical rallies. Please note: If you need to cancel your reservation, PLEASE contact Lori Bibby at norcalregistrar3854@gmail.com first, before contacting the park so that one of our waitlist members will be able to join in the fun. A Jotform will go out to those that are attending, in July.

August 14th : For those interested in attending the rally at Dumbarton Quarry Campground in Fremont, November 6th-10th, this is the day to make your own reservations. This is a dry camping rally. The hosts are planning lots of fun activities. An announcement will be sent out with instructions on where and how to register.

September 4th-8th : Joint Rally with the SacValley Club at McCloud, this should be a very fun rally with both clubs teaming up. This is a beautiful park and well worth the drive. Registration will come out in the May 1st Poppy edition.

October 9th-13th : Pomo RV Park and Campground in Fort Bragg. I'm still looking for Rally hosts with this rally. This is a great spot and we NEED a Host! Please Volunteer!!! The park requires the club to make individual reservations so if you're interested in attending, please call the park and make your own reservation, but please remember to email Lori Bibby at norcalregistrar@gmail.com after you've made your reservation. Provide BRN, name(s), cell number, email address, length of trailer, site number and the dates attending.
