And note that this year, NEAC is doing an all out artisans outreach by holding Artsy Fartsy II, hosted by Pam Bleakney, at the SAME campground the very next weekend following Rollin! If you want to attend both rallies, you can leave your camper at Travelers Woods for just $5/night, plugged in (but no AC) or enjoy their low $35/night rate for however many nights you want to stay in between – and that might be fun as Pam is working on a tour of local Artsy Fartsy sights to see in the area – you can visit these sites solo, or form a group if you like – whatever works – but it will all be fun day trips from the campsite! If you're ALSO interested in Artsy Fartsy II as an attendee or artist with something to share – that JotForm is here:
