Suggestions of Sites to See and Things to Do: Call ahead for hours, many Arthur/Amish shops are closed on Sundays.

1 Things to See or Do while in Arthur, IL (22 miles from Camp)

Green Meadow Farm (Sat 9AM - 6PM) 48 E Co Rd 200 N, Arthur, IL

There are many things to see and do in Arthur, including unique Amish experiences. One of which is the Amish family-owned Green Meadow Farm, which is perfect for families and groups. This goat farm offers horse buggy rides and behind-the-scenes tours. You'll also be able to purchase goat milk products. Schedule an appointment, or stop by to purchase the locally-grown products.

Beachy's Bulk Foods (Sat 7AM - 4:30PM) 263 N Co Rd 200 E, Arthur, IL

Beachy's Bulk Foods is pleased to offer a wide range of specialty products that can't easily be found elsewhere. The selection includes deli meats and cheese, freshly made peanut butter, gluten, and sugar-free items, pickled jar goods, homemade pies, baked goods, and so much more.

Shady Crest Market (Sat 8AM - 4PM) 2046 N Co Rd 1800 E, Arthur, IL also a great place to sit down for lunch!

The Shady Crest Farm Market is known for its unique offerings and weekly specials. Taking a leisurely stroll through the market is the perfect way to spend a morning or afternoon. There are many items for sale, including fresh fruits and vegetables, deli meat and cheese, hand-dipped ice cream, homemade fudge, baked goods, candy, dried fruits, bulk foods, and more.

Homestead Bakery (Sat 9AM - 3PM) 1749B E County Rd 1900 N, Arthur, IL

The Homestead Bakery is a community staple, offering a full line of made-from-scratch Amish baked goods. Favorites include caramel iced cinnamon rolls, sweet breads, cookies, and angel food cakes. The Homestead Bakery also carries locally-made noodles, jams, jellies, and butters.
