October 2025

One of the Wettest Weekend Rally thus far. You know it was a tough weekend when almost everyone thought about just heading home Saturday and then said to themselves let's just take a nap instead. We all had massive puddles in front of our campsites throughout the rally.

Jack and Deborah pulled off a memorable weekend hosting the rally with the stand in assistance, our very own VIP Jing! I believe Jack made a commit it was his job to stay out of Jing's way and supervise. :) Between dinner out on Thursday at the McConkey's Jungle Shack, Friday's happy-hour and Potluck, then Saturday morning's Edisto's purple grits, eggs and sausages followed that evening with Jack and Jing's "goulash" over Carolina Gold rice, and Edisto Key Lime Pie for dessert. What a fitting meal for a rainy rally.

We had 3 visitors to our Edisto Rally, Wiley and Gail Downing, Dale and Sandy Houge, and Dr. Dean & Valerie Bard. Simply put, we have new friends who all rolled with the punches throughout the rainy weekend and made the rally just that more special and entertaining.

*Side note; Ron especially enjoyed learning about "Wisconsin Lutheran" and "Missouri Lutheran" vs the ELCA, Larry, Audrey and Dale and everyone in the area were laughing and having a great time going down Wisconsin Memory Lane. Sometimes our most difficult Rallies turn out to be the most memorable, Big Thank You to everyone (new and old) who make this weekend such a special event.

One more Side note if we may: Jack and Deborah, thank you for going above and beyond and ordering the larger awning for the basecamp and opening your rig to seat those who choose not to sit in wet chairs and go inside and drink Margaritas. Jack, you might have your Airstream floor cleaned in time for next month's Rally.
