

President's Message Brian Mulligan BRN 29813

mulligansix@rcn.com

Greetings fellow Airstreamers and, yes, Keystoneers.

As I write the first of many messages to our club members, it's just days before Thanksgiving and by the time you read this, it will all be behind us and on to Christmas. Hopefully, everyone had a wonderful Thanksgiving with family and friends.

As we do every year, on November 15th, many of us gathered in Lancaster for our installation rally. We welcomed some new members including Joan and Chris Willy, and Brian Robinson. In the spirit of all our rallies, we enjoyed fires, laughs, lunch and so much more. It's our people who make our club and rallies so special and uniquely Keystone. During our installation ceremony, Rick Pitts officiated the change on our officers. A great big thanks to now our immediate past president Jennifer Eggers. What an amazing job she did throughout the past year in accomplishing so much. We are grateful to have such enthusiastic members in our club.

I would also like to recognize Lori Phafler as our first VP and Joel Burkholder as our second VP, and Elana Echart our new second trustee. All other positions in our club remain unchanged. A big thanks to all who do things behind the scenes to help our club work, grow and thrive. This includes Kathleen Quinn, Jody Deitz, Andy and Rick Pitts, Karen Kusto and, of course, our news editor, Bill Earle. Thanks to all for what you do.

Next up is our holiday lunch on Dec 6. If interested, please contact Jennifer asap. Hope to see you there. The 2026 calendar is published and live, if interested in any rally, please don't wait too long to sign up and secure a spot. As we all know, our state parks and private campgrounds do fill up sometimes a year in advance. If you have not attended a Keystone or region 2 rally, 2026 may be a good year give it a try.

For now, winterize, stay warm, and we will see ya soon.

Brian
