November 2025

Cast-a-way to Skidaway Island State Park Rally:

This weekend, Captain Marti Wallace was at the helm with her trusty Quartermasters (Billy and Linda Gail Blackwell) who shivered everyone's timbers. First Mate, Marvin, got to a sailing start on Friday evening with Cast Iron Brunswick Stew in the big black pot. It was devoured like it was everyone's last meal (thanks to everyone for all the sides). Saturday Morning Seadog Bill and company got into the action with Cast Iron Dutch Oven "crackle fruit". Ron, Billy, and Old Salt Jack did their best to keep pace. Then a morning Club Business Meeting where the New Board was announced, Congrats to all the new Board Members. After the meeting, a few carloads headed to Wormsloe Historic Site for some history lessons. Saturday Evening was a SHOW with costumes, tattoos, and Charlotte's Grog punch along with Dark and Stormy's that were handed out for all the hearties to enjoy. The she-pirates were over the top in costume, WOW/Men we are some kind of lucky! Did anyone happen to see sexy Jack Sparrow aka Steve Ray, with the dead crow on his shoulder? Or was I just three sheets to the wind! We had visitors and new Scallywags in on the fun. Finally, for Saturday's dinner, we had 6 different pots of Chili with at least 4 different kinds of cornbread, Blimey, the food never stopped.

Great to see Ronnie and Candee back camping with us, we really missed you guys so much.

We welcomed repeat visitors Drew and Julie McKeown from Top of Georgia, who ventured off to the pickleball courts with Ron and Steve to enjoy a little rainy pickleball/ Always a treat having y'all around. (Drew you can never be forgotten).

Nick and Becky Hayes, New Lowcountry Members who got into pirate costumes and fit right in. It's always nice to meet fellow KYD followers! We hope y'all had a good laugh or two at our expense. Thank you for being such great sports and enjoyed the evening around the fire with us.

Brent, Mary, and Everett Terwilliger, New Lowcountry Members who made it to their first rally with us. They jumped in and won the Chili cook off and later in the evening broke the guitar and Dang that man has a voice. I'm beginning to think we will have the absolute best guitar/uke singing airstream club in the WORLD!

We were glad that Glen/Carol DuBois and Stephen/Mary Kay Ross could join us for the rally.

A side note to the Rally: A little birdie told me while Charlotte was heading home after the rally, she spotted an Airstream on the side of the road in need of help. She stopped and rendered assistance and had their airstream pulled to a campground while their vehicle was towed for repairs. Great Job Charlotte!

LOWCOUNTRY AIRSTREAM WEB-SITE

It was politely (TY) brought to our attention during October's rally that we haven't kept y'all properly informed to the upgrades to our LAC webpage. So, if you haven't already, please take the time to go to:

<https://airstreamclub.org/low-country-airstream-club>. You will notice a box marked "Registration List" If you have registered for a rally, you will see it listed accordingly. As you scroll down the main page you will see some newer photos of us having FUN! We are especial pleased with Steve Ray's photo w/ the Pink Ladies. Then, as you continue down the page you will see the rally links on the left, select "More" on the interested rally then select "Click to Register" which will take you to JotForm. Please spend some time looking around on this page and bookmark it for future use (we use it often).
