The QFRA is the only public access to the 900 acre Quemahoning Reservoir, known locally as the Que. The QFRA is popular for fishing, canoeing, kayaking, walking, mountain biking and paddle boarding.

- Early Access Reservations: Between February 1 and 28, call 814-233-9512 and identify yourself as part of the Central PA Airstream Club. Official rally is Friday-Sunday but feel free to book before and/or after to enjoy the area!
- Public Reservations: Starting March 1 www.quefamilyrec.com/reserve
- RV Site Info: Weekday $35/night, weekend (Friday & Saturday) $37/night 110V/30 AMP service only. Water fill stations and sewer dump station are nearby. Shower house and restrooms are a short walk from any site.
- Rally Fee: $5 per person, payable at rally
- Meals: Saturday full breakfast provided
Food trucks at the QFRA Friday and Saturday night if interested. We will have a pavilion available to us as a gathering point for meals both days.
- Activities: Bring your canoes, kayaks, mountain bikes and fishing gear to take full advantage of all the Que has to offer. Flight 93 and the Johnstown Flood Memorial are of local interest. Both are free to the public. We may look at a group outing to one if there is interest.
- Contact: Email Jen & John Smindak @ jsmindak@outlook.com with any questions, and with attendee info once reserved.

The rally point will be RV site 16, with the pavilion next door. The QFRA is mostly flat, making it very walkable. There is a site map on the website for reference when reserving your site.
