President's Corner

FEBRUARY 2026

Hellow Streaming Musicians,

As we move through another active month, I'd like to share several important updates and opportunities to stay connected—both in person and virtually—as well as an important reminder about your role in our governance process.

🎵 First Rally at DCI– Save the Date and Sign Up [Page 5]

Our first rally will be here before you know it, and plans are coming together nicely. Rallies are one of the most important ways we strengthen our community.

If you can attend, I strongly encourage you to register and take part.

➡ Rally Information & Registration:

JotForm Link: <https://pci.jotform.com/form/253504272419051>

The above JotForm has all the information for campground and DCI tickets, so make sure to read through the event. It's shaping up to be a wonderful time.

🍹 New This Month: Virtual Happy Hour

To create more informal opportunities for connection, we're excited to try something new—a Virtual Happy Hour. This will be a relaxed, no-agenda gathering where members can log in, say hello, and get to know one another outside of meetings and official business.

📅 Date: Sunday, February 15

🕒 Time: 7:00 PM

🔗 Join Link: Streaming Musicians Happy Hour | Microsoft Teams | Meetup-Join

Whether you stay for five minutes or the full hour, we hope you'll stop by. If this goes well, we plan to make virtual gatherings like this a regular offering.

📋 CBL Updates – Please Take the Time to Vote

We are currently in the process of updating our Constitution, Bylaws and Policy (CBL). These updates are intended to keep our club clear, current, and aligned with the ACI.

FEBRUARY 2026

Approval of these updates requires a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the membership, making participation essential.

Voting will be conducted electronically using JotForm.

Important reminder for members on a 2-member BRN:

Everyone listed on the BRN is entitled to their own vote. When submitting your response, please clearly indicate how each person is voting so your ballot can be properly recorded.

I encourage everyone to review the proposed updates carefully and submit your vote before the deadline.

Staying Engaged—and Sharing Your Music—Matters

Whether it's attending a rally, joining a virtual happy hour, or participating in a membership vote, these moments of engagement are what keep Streaming Musicians strong, responsive, and member led. I'd also like to encourage those of you who are regularly performing to share your upcoming concert dates with us—especially if performances can be streamed or if you'd like help promoting where and when they'll be held. We're always looking for opportunities to highlight our members and the great work you're doing.

In addition, please make use of our Facebook page as a space to share and promote music. That can include upcoming performances, livestream links, recordings you're proud of, or even the occasional funny or insightful music-related meme. The more we share with one another, the stronger our sense of community becomes.

Thank you for your continued professionalism, involvement, and support. I look forward to seeing many of you at future events.

Musically,

Cody Klingler

For Bluegrass Fans – go to Gettysburg

The May Festival always sells out. There are a few tickets and camping spots available. The Keystone Airstream Club tells us:

“The festival is a 5-day camping package with 2 festival tickets included for $568.50

They have other hook up options elsewhere in the park but if you want to be with us, ask for the Safari Post Area. The posts are 30amp with water. There is a honey truck available. Each post serves 4 rigs. The area is grass. Posts 10-12 are right across the street from what we had reserved.

For reference, Keystone is on posts 1 and 2.

To get in that area you MUST book a Tuesday through Sunday reservation...that’s just how the festival works.

It can get muddy, so come prepared...and depending where you are on the post (they are first come first serve), you may need an extension cord.

Also, as with most Bluegrass festivals, you can set up chairs and leave them out all festival. There is an open area in front of the stage and a huge tent up on a hill for shelter that also has great views of the stage. I recommend bringing a set of chairs you don’t mind leaving out and a couple garbage bags to keep them dry if it rains.”
