

Awning Care

Question: Does the awning ever need any recoating with any type of repellent? Right now, there are no leaks and it seems to hold well.

Answer: Clean the awning every couple of years with a mild soapy water mixture. Brush the soapy water mixture on the top, roll it up for an hour, open it up and hose it off. Every year you should spray silicone on every moving joint. Wipe off any excess.