President's Message
Brian Mulligan, BRN 29813
mulligansix@rcn.com

Greetings Keystone Club!

As I write this note to our club, it's Sunday, the day before Memorial Day. It's a good time to take a few minutes and be reminded of the service and sacrifices so many have made for our nation. We are truly thankful to all who gave so we can live our lives as we do today and every day.

The month of May was kicked off with another fantastic season opener at Lums Pond. The weather was great and catching up with old friends and new is really what makes this event so much fun. Burger bar and dinner Saturday night was also a highlight. Looking forward to next year and a slight change up in the date due to well, the dogs.

Up next in June is the blues festival in Chester. Also, if you are attending the Cowtown Rodeo in August, it's a good idea to purchase your tickets ahead of time, as it could sell out.

This past week, Region 2 held a special meeting to vote on a new second VP, James Lorden. James is from the NJ Airstream club and has agreed to take on this role. Unlike at our club level where each officer holds a position for one year, at the Region, it's a 2-year commitment at each progression leading to Region 2 President. Congrats to James!

That's all for now. Safe travels to all and please, continue to send in pictures you want to share of your adventures.

Brian

Eastern PA 'Opener' Rally May 1-3, Lums Pond State Park, Bear, DE Rick & Andy Pitts

Fifteen rigs from Keystone joined with nine from Central Penn and rigs from the PA, NJ and Watchung clubs for the Opener Rally. This year's theme was Spring is in the Air-stream and was hosted by Wendy & Terry Hauschild (CP) and Andy & Rick Pitts (Keystone).

The rally kicked-off Friday evening with a Meat & Greet hosted by Central Penn featuring burgers, pulled pork and plentiful potluck sides, salads and desserts.

With chilly, but dry weather the first of several campfires followed the evening's dinner.

Saturday brought out the day's more challenging activities with a bike trip along the canal (naturally taking in the Creamery at St Georges) and kayaking on the pond at Lums.

Palo Duro Canyon State Park Amarillo, TX

Andy & Rick Pitts, BRN 27489

One of our most interesting state parks was in northern Texas, in Canyon, TX just a few miles south of Amarillo. Texas longhorns greeted us at the entrance to the modest drive from the flatlands down into a spectacular canyon. Sites are nicely spaced, water & electric (w/dump station on site) and rest within spectacular canyon views. And just a few miles north to Amarillo is the Jack Sisemore RV Museum featuring mega-exhibits of vintage Airstreams and motorcycles!

From Karen Kushto, BRN 818 -- Fantastic Region 2 Rally at Pocono Raceway with 58 rigs and opportunities to drive or ride-along race car experiences, delicious catered breakfast, potato & taco bars, corn hole tournaments and the best ever fireworks display. Will & Patti won a beautiful corn hole set!
*Save the date for next year's Region 2 Rally - May 13-16, 2027 at Sun Resorts Ocean City, MD.
