

Piedmont Club Members aka “The Streamin’ Smoochers”! Having a great time at the Region 3 Rally in Lakeland, FL.

It’s Maintenance Month!

Wow, it’s April already! Time to get those maintenance items done and get your rig ready for camping season. Be sure you get signed up for the Laid Back in Lumberton Rally. There is no one better to teach you about maintenance than Bill Townsend. Not to mention it’s much more fun to do the not-so-fun, necessary stuff with friends!

Cheers!

The President's Message

President Diane Byrum

Have you ever seen so many shiny Airstreams, you needed sunglasses at sunrise? Well, the Byrums, Mounts, Earles, Hvizdaks, Lovettes, Martins, Townsends—and, of course, our fearless Region 3 President Bob and his better half, Ginger Ealy—just rolled back from the wild and wonderful Region 3 Rally in Lakeland, FL! With Bob, Ginger, and their trusty crew of volunteers at the helm, this rally was a smorgasbord of delicious eats, brain-boosting seminars, handy-dandy vendors, and enough polished aluminum to make a magpie swoon!

Picture this: Sun 'n Fun Aerospace Expo Center transformed into an Airstream paradise, where hundreds of silvery beauties dotted campgrounds and cozied up to runways for a front-row seat to plane take-offs. Every shindig happened in Hanger B, and Airstream of Tampa (Blue Compass) brought eight showstoppers you could ogle and dream about all weekend! From the cowboy-chic Stetson (yes, it has cowboy hat racks!), to the spa-like Flying Cloud and the snazzy new Classic, plus the slim and slick World Traveler, Globetrotter, Tradewinds ready to go off the grid, and not one but TWO Interstate Vans—there was truly something for every Airstream adventurer's heart.

The party kicked off Thursday with a parade of flags and a dash of opening ceremony pizzazz! But Mother Nature decided we needed a dramatic soundtrack and sent in thunderstorms and buckets of rain. No worries—Friday turned up the heat (literally—hello, muggy weather!), but we kept cool with fascinating vendors, top-notch seminars, a mouthwatering Italian Fest, and a band rocking all our favorite 70's and 80's hits. Saturday morning brought a breakfast feast of pancakes and sausage, more can't-miss seminars, a Hurricane Hunter's tales of the skies, and a storyteller who spun yarns about planes and Airstreams. The grand finale? A pig roast—yes, a real one, curly tail and all! —and a surprise birthday bash for President Bob. On Sunday, Jim Mount gathered us all for a heartfelt reflection on the blessing of belonging to this big, shiny Airstream family.

Happy Birthday Bob!

Now, let's hop in our time machines and zip back to our club's humble beginnings as we celebrate 50 golden years of the Piedmont NC club. imagine: It's May 1977, and rally fees are a whopping $5.50 for two people (and a mere 75 cents for each extra fun-lover you bring along).

For your next Rally Happy Hour try:

Slow-Roasted Cherry Tomato Brushetta

1 ½ pounds cherry tomatoes (about 4 cups)	¾ cup extra-virgin olive oil, divided
6 medium garlic cloves	½ (8-oz.) baguette, sliced diagonally (about 8 slices)
5 thyme sprigs	4 ounces goat cheese log, softened
1 teaspoon fennel seeds	Small fresh basil leaves
1 teaspoon kosher salt
1 tablespoon sherry vinegar

1. Preheat oven to 350°F. Toss together tomatoes, garlic, thyme, fennel seeds, salt, vinegar, and 1/4 cup of the oil in an 11 x 7-inch baking dish. Roast; stirring once, until tomatoes are tender and skins blister, 25 to 30 minutes. Cool 10 minutes.
2. Meanwhile, place baguette slices in a shallow baking pan, and drizzle with 1/4 cup of the oil. Bake at 350°F until slightly browned, 8 to 10 minutes. Carefully remove and discard blistered peels from cooled tomatoes, if desired. Spread goat cheese on warm baguette slices, and place on a serving platter. Top with tomatoes, drizzle with remaining 1/4 cup oil, and sprinkle with basil leaves.

The VP's Perspective

With NC camping weather finally upon us, our thoughts shift into high gear making final arrangements for this year's road trips. Past experiences tend to ignite the passion to continue to explore our great nation with the Airstream in tow. In this and future articles I thought I would share a few of the favorite places we've visited in case you are looking for ideas of places to visit.

In the Spring of 2022, we embarked on a 10,000-mile roundtrip over a 3-month period, with California being the primary destination and participation in the inaugural Golden State Caravan. I have often been asked what our favorite place or experience encountered was on this Journey. There were so many!

VP David Stubbs

California's Calling

One that may be less well known is Point Reyes National Seashore, located about 45 miles north of San-Francisco. Visitors are treated to expansive views of the coastline and surrounding landscapes, a lighthouse, all high above the Pacific Ocean.

This park also sports one of the longest undeveloped sections of the San Andreas fault in Northern CA. Given the relatively remote location, this park is usually sparsely populated, allowing visitors plenty of time and spaces to pause and take in the views.

About a 10 foot shift since 1906.*

A few of our photographs, included here, attempt to portray this park but hardly do it justice, much like trying to photograph the Grand Canyon. You must be there to take it in.

A nice place to set up camp nearby is Olema Campground in Olema, CA.
